FANFARE

— INTRODUCTION TO OUR TORCH —

Andante maestoso

Foreword

The lives and school days of all of us have had many changes in tempo and tune. It is our purpose to register these changes in our 1956 Torch. We hope to record the happy notes, which are numerous, along with the sad notes experienced by some. Throughout the phases of our high school years, the songs of our classes and activities have been partially classical, or difficult to understand, with some blue notes added. The melodies will always be with us wherever we are and the ever loving refrains of our high school days will be thought of often.

DEDICATION

This year as in the past the Torch Staff of 1955-56 has the honor and privilege of dedicating our annual, The Torch, to a person who has contributed much to our education and to the all around good will of the entire student body at Lincoln High. This year we are dedicating the annual to a teacher who is admired and respected by all for her unselfish devotion and deep interest in our future welfare. She has stayed with us from start to finish, never giving up, never tiring of us, and never losing patience. We, the Torch Staff of 1955-56, are proud and most happy to dedicate our annual to Mrs. Geneva Gorsuch.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Board of Education

J. H. McBurney

While going about our studies, extra-curricular activities, and various other chores that go with being last year students, some of us may have forgotten or momentarily laid aside any thought of those responsible for our education since we first entered school some twelve years ago. Yet, in the hearts of all of us there will remain a warm spot for those who have taken time out from their occupations, and professions to help and make our graduation possible. We, the senior class of 1956, salute Mr. McBurney and the Board of Education.

Our thanks also to the secretaries in our school system: Don Klucking, Jackie Packard, Darlene Richey, and Mavis Schnurr. They have given unselfishly of their time and efforts and made our years of schooling most valuable and memorable.

Don Klucking
Secretary to the Board

Jackie Packard
Secretary to the Superintendent

Darlene Richey
High School Secretary

Mavis Schnurr
Junior High School Secretary

SECONDARY ADMINISTRATORS

In Washington Central you will find the office of Mr. A. W. Langerak, Dean of Webster City Junior College. Mr. Langerak leads the Junior College in its many and varied activities with unending patience and support. He endeavors to make the stay in Junior College as pleasant and enjoyable as possible and his efforts are most worthwhile. Our thanks for his help and encouragement during our years of further education.

Walter E. Crissey, Principal
Lincoln High School

While in Junior High, we will remember the one we turned to in time of stress as Mr. V. I. Arney. He was always willing and ready to give us all the help and reassurance we needed, and to make our way as easy and enjoyable as possible. His interest and enthusiasm in our school activities will long be remembered and the fun he shared with us will long remain in our memories.

A. W. Langerak, Dean of the Junior College

Walter E. Crissey is Lincoln High's Principal and pillar of support to those in need. Mr. Crissey has stuck by through the fair and the foul, the good and the bad. His good judgment and sense of humor have helped us over many an obstacle blocking our path and led us on to greater achievements. We will be forever grateful and shall long remember our principal's encouragement, spirit, and unending faith when the going got rough.

DAVID MOORE
President

An athletic chap
and a likeable one;
A lot of ambition
and a lot of fun.

CAROL SINGER★
Vice-President

With a diamond on my finger, and lots of gladness in my heart, But with a little sorrow
I from Lincoln High depart.

LINDA LEAR★
Sec.-Treas.

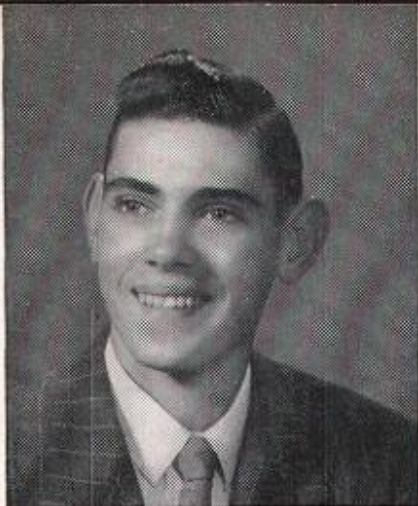

Sandy hair and always neat,
She's a girl you'd like to meet.

"We've traveled the road, sharin' our load—side by side," during our three years in Lincoln High School. Looking back we remember vividly our first "green" days in this building, serving at the junior-senior banquet and prom, "Seven Fathoms Deep," and all our strivings to add to our school.

Also holding a place in our memory is selling concessions at football games and presenting our junior class play, "The Lucky Penny," both to obtain funds to finance the huge project—being hosts to the seniors at the banquet and prom, "Fantasy-land." We increased our addition to activities as juniors and became an important part of our school.

To write of our senior year, our very last in Lincoln High, is indeed sad. Homecoming, the Christmas Snowball, our two Conference Championship teams, the senior class play, the Schools Journal and production of the 1956 Torch, our trip to Des Moines, being guests at the banquet and prom, the final senior assembly, our class picnic; these are only the big events mixed in with the everyday life of our Lincoln High School. We received our diplomas at Commencement and are now no longer "Side by Side," but our hearts will always hold fond memories.

★ Stars by names indicate four year honor students.

ARTHUR ADES

Arthur is country lad, Always cheerful,
never sad.

MARGARET ALEXANDER★

The blue of the skies
must shudder, then fade Upon seeing the eyes of this fair young maid.

LUVERNE ANDERSON

He accomplishes whatever he undertakes.

WALTER BAILEY

This thing called learning—what is it?

DONNA BECKER★

Heaven to her has been most kind
In giving her a brilliant mind.

SHIRLEY BISHEY★

Her face is her fortune which runs
into a nice figure.

RODGER BLACK

I like to sail through starry skies,
And know just how an airplane flies.

RONALD BLUE★

We know that if he had his way,
He'd study football
every day.

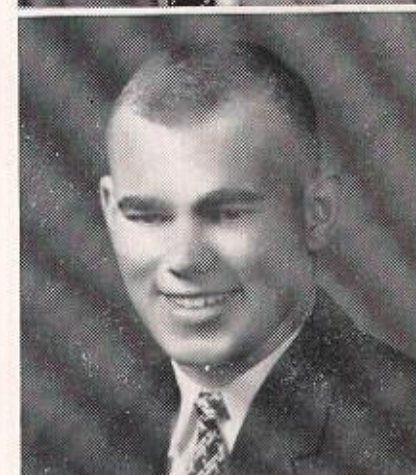

PHYLLIS BOWMAN★

I should worry,
and get a wrinkle.
Me for a smile,
and have a dimple.

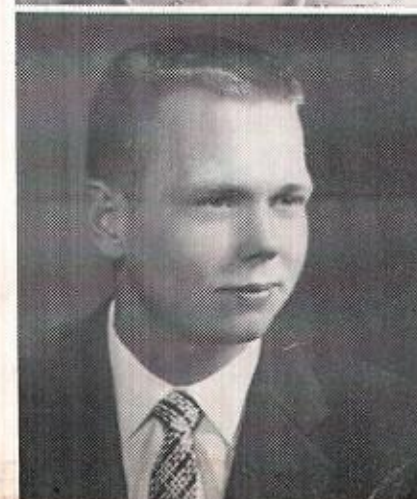

DONALD BOYD

I can't get up
with the sun,
I stay out too late
with the daughter.

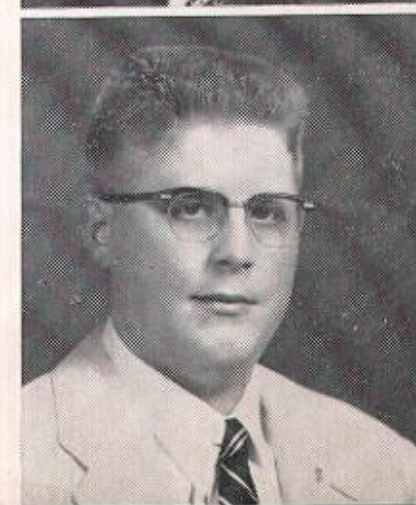

HAROLD BURGESS

He doesn't let his studies interfere with his high school education.

HARLAND BUTLER★

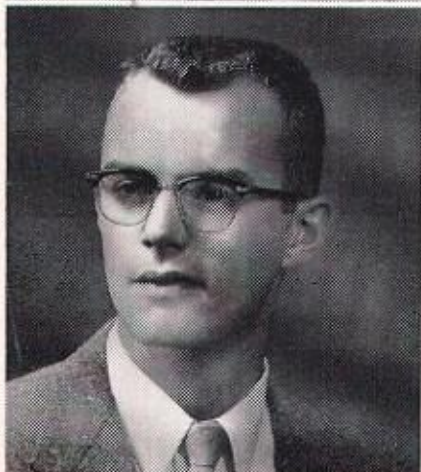

As good-natured
as the day is long.

LOWELL CHANCE

You can and you can't,
you will and you won't.
You're blamed if you do
and blamed if you don't.

CLAUDE CRUMPTON

He's a good kid
we all know,
Lots of fun
and plenty of "go".

JON DOWNS

I'd like to be bashful
but the girls won't let me.

DEANNA COULTER

She has a whim
for the gym.

JIM DICKASON

The key to success
doesn't fit the night
latch.

ANN DURO

Her face is fair,
Her heart is, too.

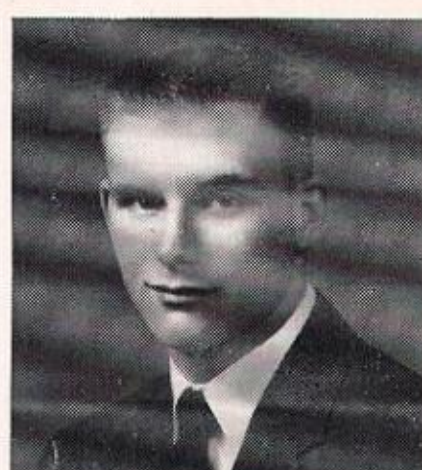

BILLIE DUNN

A jolly person
ready for fun,
But never shirks when
there's work to be done.

DONALD DYVAD

In spring a young man's fancy turns to what Don thinks about
the whole year.

JERRY ELM

A laugh is worth a groan in any market.

PHYLLIS EWING

If you want someone
who's lots of fun,
Pick on her,
she's just the one.

ROLLAND FISTER

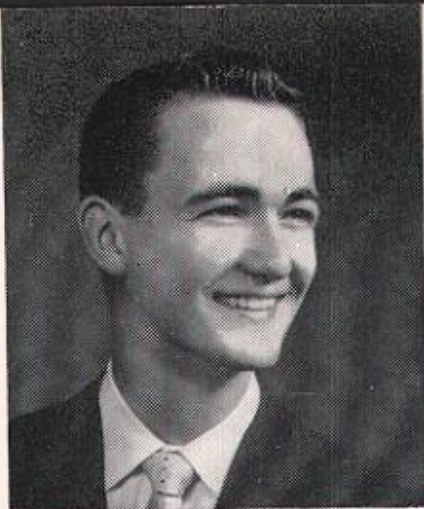

I'm not lazy,
I was just born tired.

PEGGY FLEER★

She giggles if it's funny,
and one may truly say,
That if it isn't funny
she giggles anyway.

CHRIS FREDERICKSON

Greater men than I have lived
But I don't believe it.

MYRTLE FRETTE

I don't care,
I'm not going to kill myself working.

WILLIAM FUGATE

I find so much joy in living.

LOUDENE GRAVES

Calm, quiet, and friendly.

KEITH GREENFIELD

A little nonsense
now and then Is good for even
the best of men.

ROSALIE GREMPEL

This year we crowned her Homecoming Queen.
No fairer face
on movie screen.

CLAUDE HALL

He makes a hit
with the ladies,
And they make a hit with him.

JOHN HALL

Sometimes busy,
sometimes not,
But always "Johnny
on the spot".

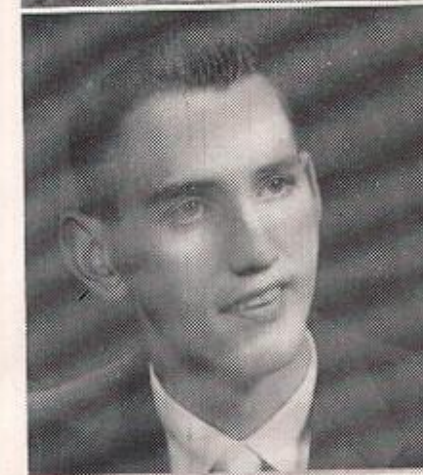

DEAN HALVERSON★

Always that grin,
big and wide.
His happiness is hard to hide.

ROGER HAMMAN

His road is leading toward success.

BEVERLY HANSON

Slender, lovely,
and beautiful hair Everything that's precious and rare.

GAYLON HARBAUGH

His circle of friendship
will ever grow,
For he is a guy
who is nice to know.

ALICE HARGRAVE★

Amiable, quiet, and sweet

EMILY HARGRAVE

Her hair is of a pretty red,
She's one good sport,
has oft been said.

CHARLES HARRELD

He goes on the theory
that a football field
isn't the only place
that you needed a good line.

KAREN HAVINGA

Speaking generally,
she's generally speaking.

HELEN HENNESEY

Happiness is like a jam—
everytime you spread it,
you get some on yourself.

KAREN HOLM

No, not quiet or shy is she,
But full of pep
and energy.

NANCY HOLTKAMP

Some may love to dance,
some may love to swing,
But she, unlike the others,
just dearly loves to sing.

WILLARD JACKSON

A young man in his early flirties.

DELORIS JACOBSON

Work is work and play is play.
I mix them up
most every day.

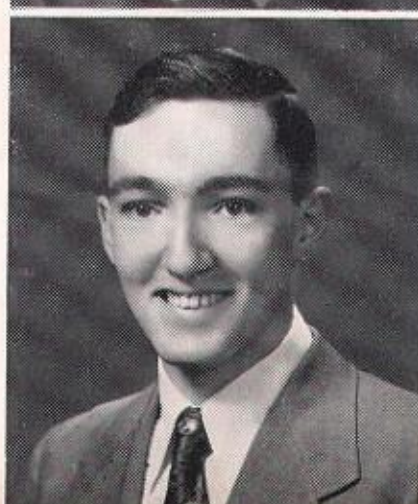

MARLENE JACOBSON

Tiny mite,
A darling site.

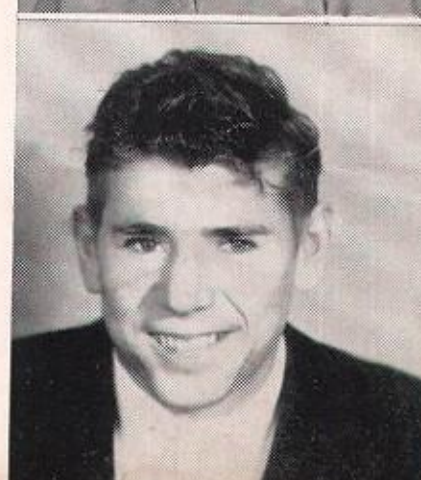

JOHN JANSEN

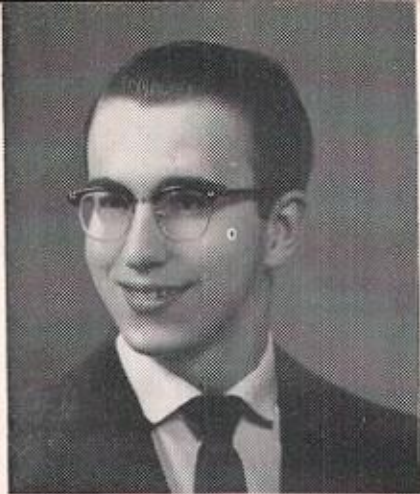

A quiet lad is he
And yet as busy as can be.

JERRY JETTER

I'm not lazy,
I'm just not in a hurry.

JOHN JOHNSON
Filling all his work
with progress.

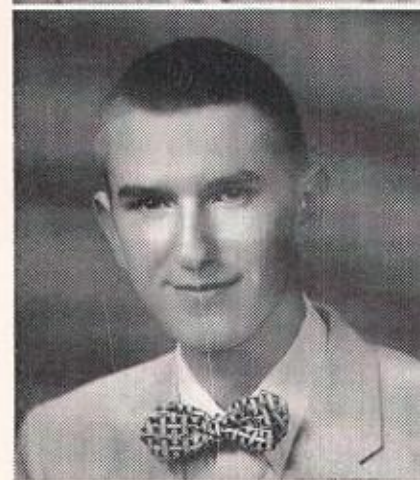

WALTER KENT
One today is worth
two tomorrows—if you're having a good time.

BILL KEON Class periods ought to be ten minutes long—five minutes to come and five to go.

GARY KOLBECK
Early to bed,
and early to rise,
Would never have made him half so wise!

ELMER LANKEN
A quiet boy
so mild and meek
That even his shoes
refuse to squeak.

BARBARA LAZARUS
A twinkle in her eye,
a smile on her lips, Bubbling over
and full of tricks.

GLENN LEE
Women annoy me—
I love to be annoyed.

CURTIS LEMON
In the game of hearts
I've found my queen.

RONALD LEMON
Of all sad words
that wreck my ease,
The saddest are
"I've lost my keys."

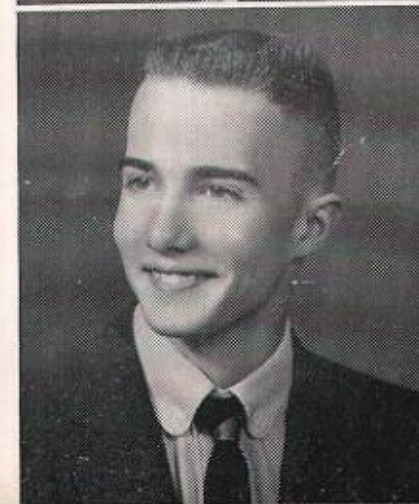

DONALD LILLEGARD
I want my life
mixed with fun.
After a busy day is done.

CONNIE LORD
She has talent,
She is pretty,
She is awful—
awful witty.

JAMES LUBBERS★ Life is a jest,
and all things show it;
I thought so once,
And now I know it.

RITA MADSEN

She is wise,
she is is witty,
She's in love—
what a pity.

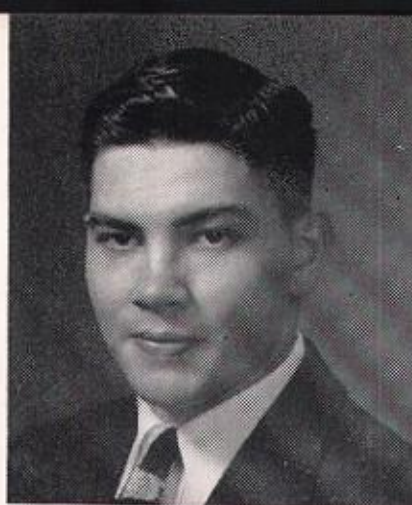

HARRIET MASON★

A friendly lass
with a brilliant mind;
Girls like her
are hard to find.

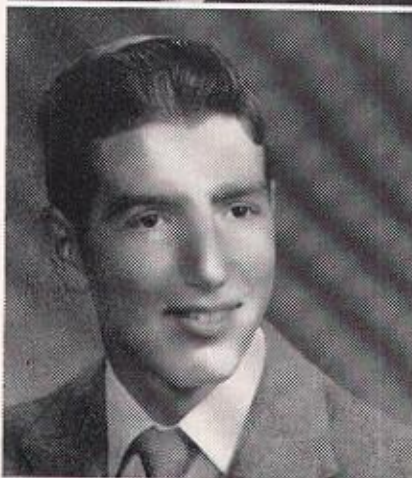

IDA MAE MELLINGER

Here's a young lady
good as gold;
Never too shy
and never too bold.

ROBERT MARTIN

Bob is our photo man, Makes you pretty
if he can.

DONALD McCOLLOUGH

Some like to take part
in city strife,
I think I'd like to lead
a quiet farm life.

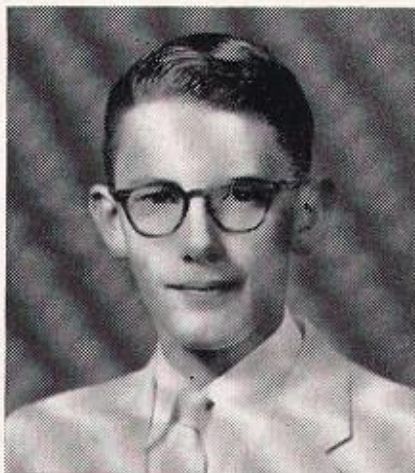

BEVERLY MERRILL

I don't use makeup,
I never use paint;
I don't pretend
to be what I ain't.

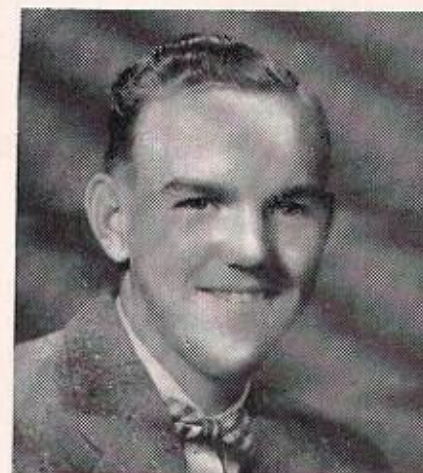

JAMES MERTZ

I've found out that when you smile at Trouble, Good Fortune usually smiles back.

ROGER MESECHER

I always say that even a woodpecker owes his success to the fact that he uses his head.

DAVID MILLER

To Lincoln High
he's always true.
Devoted student
all year through.

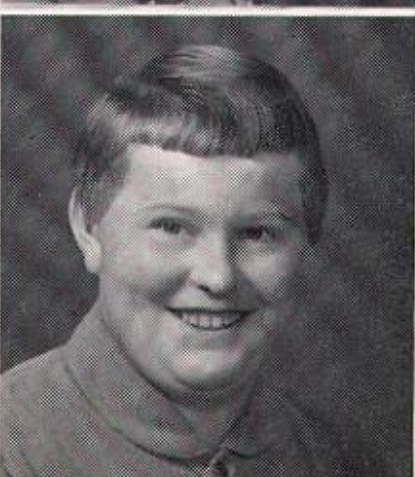

DELORIS MILLER

Here's to the girl
with a heart and a smile
that makes this bubble of life worth while.

MARGARET MILLER

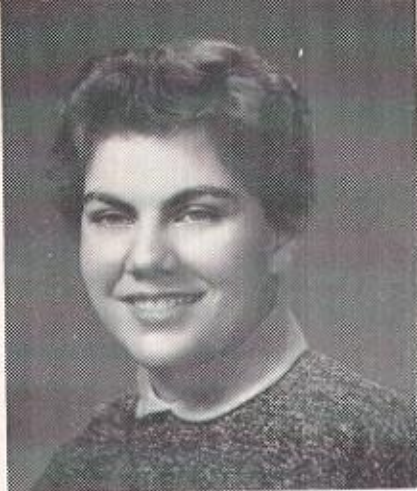

Sweet and friendly
and full of fun, Margaret's liked
by everyone.

LELAND MOATS

Napoleon was only 5' 2".

MARY MONTANDON

Gentlemen may prefer blondes,
but they usually marry brunettes.

MARY ELLEN NAIL★

She works with a will
and yells with pep.
If you can keep up,
just get in step.

KAREN NELSON

Always snappy,
full of spice,
Very peppy,
mighty nice.

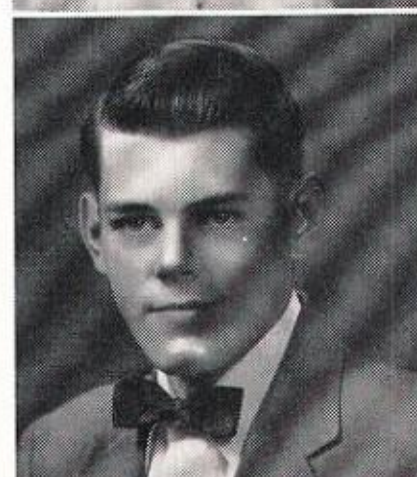

JOYCE NAIL

Plenty of noise
Mixed with plenty of poise.

DONNA NAIRN

An all-around pal,
A likeable gal.

ROBERT NELSON

I aroused, turned a page, and fell asleep.

JO ANNE NICHOLS

A modest girl
with big blue eyes,
And a personality
twice her size.

RONALD NOE

He has concrete opinions thoroughly mixed
and permanently set.

MARY NORTHUP

If I can't be seen,
I must be heard.

ARNOLD ODLAND

I love a parade,
but I like the farm
still better.

DENNIS PAGEL

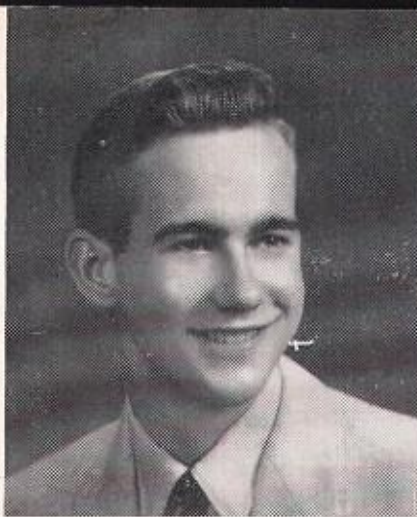

He smiles and the world
smiles with him.

TONI PATROU

A laughing lassie
With a classy chassis.

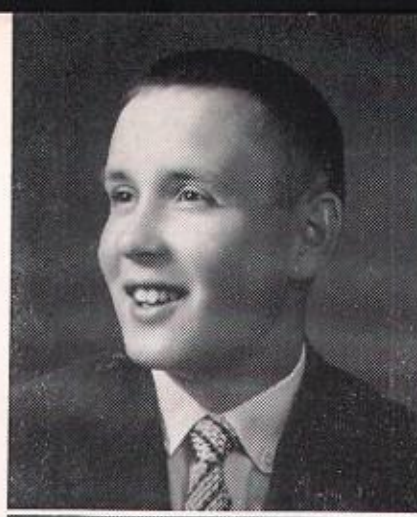

ERNIE RAIRDEN
Whatever the task
may be,
He always does it
willingly.

LOIS RICHARDS
"Don't take life too
serious'y; you'll never get out of it alive,
anyway."

RICHARD ROBERTS
High school days
have their delights
But they can't compare with high school nights.

MARIS RASMUSSEN★
All great men
are dying.
I don't feel so well myself.

ROSEMARY RICHEY★
A very unusual little miss,
Full of humor
and innocent bliss.

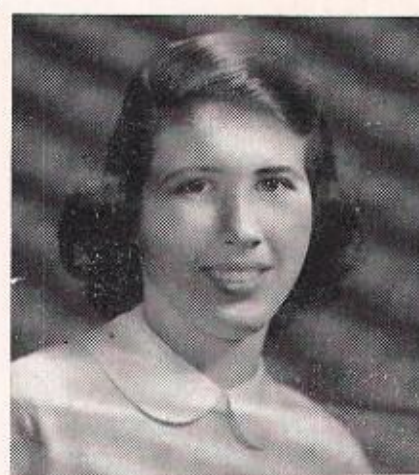

LELAND ROE
It's nice to be a man of few words—
There is so little to take back.

JACKIE ROTH★ Light of heart,
quick of step,
Here's a girl
that's full of pep.

PATSY ROWE
A brunette with charm
and deep-brown eyes, Wherein a wealth of good humor lies.

BARBARA RUPPEL
She is friendly,
she is fair,
With a disposition
rare.

BEULAH RUSH
Sweet personality
Full of rascality.

ROBERT SEAMANDS Full of fun and mischief too, Doing things he oughtn't to.

ROGER SEAMANDS Speaks little,
but is a good spoke in the senior wheel.

GARY SHORT

I came, I saw, and decided to come again.

BARBARA SILVERSTEIN

Worry is folly
So let us be jolly.

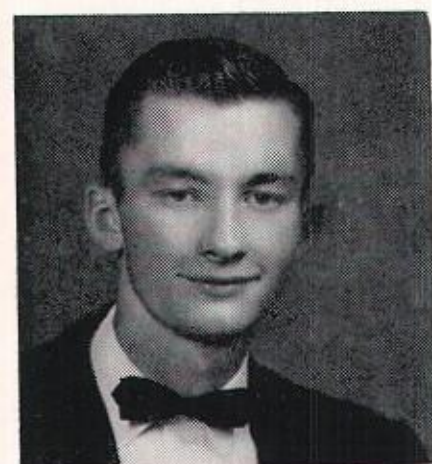

BARBARA SMITH

Blondes may be made,
but red hair is natural.

SHIRLEY SONGER

So quiet and lady-like,
we seldom know she's around.

LARRY STALEY

He goes through life
his peaceful way,
He'll make his mark
in the world someday.

BETH STEARNS

Her friends
they are many;
her foes, are there any?

LINDA STEIN

Sweet and petite.

DALE WAGNER

My eyes are blue,
my heart is mellow,
I'm an easy-going fellow..

JACK STORK

He is bashful,
he is shy,
But there's mischief
in his eye.

GARY WARWICK

I wonder which girl will look best with this tie?

JUNE STUHMER

He has not lived who has not heard her giggle.

GORDON THACKRAY★

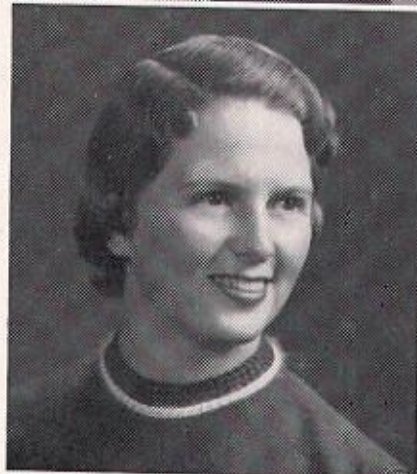

Stately, tall;
He stalks the hall.

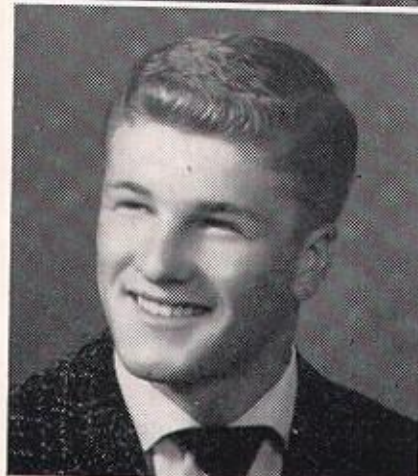

MERLYN TUNGESVIK★

He has no time for girls nor fame,
A mere diploma is his aim.

SHARON WARREN

How brilliant and mirth-
ful the light in her eye,
Like a star glancing down
from the blue of the sky.

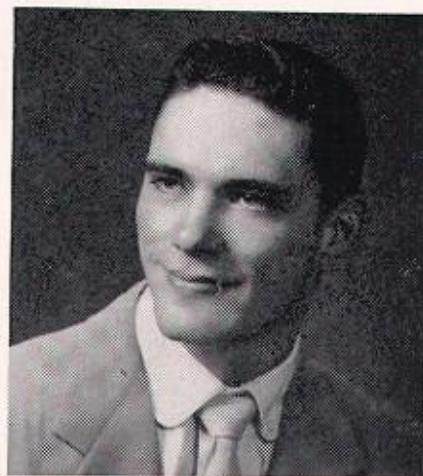

DENNIS WEABLE

Full of pep,
and vim and joy,
He's a corker!
What a boy!

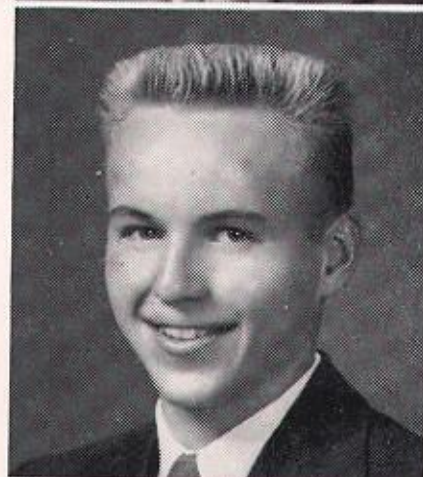

RICHARD WHEELER

I go to school to get
the general idea
of things.

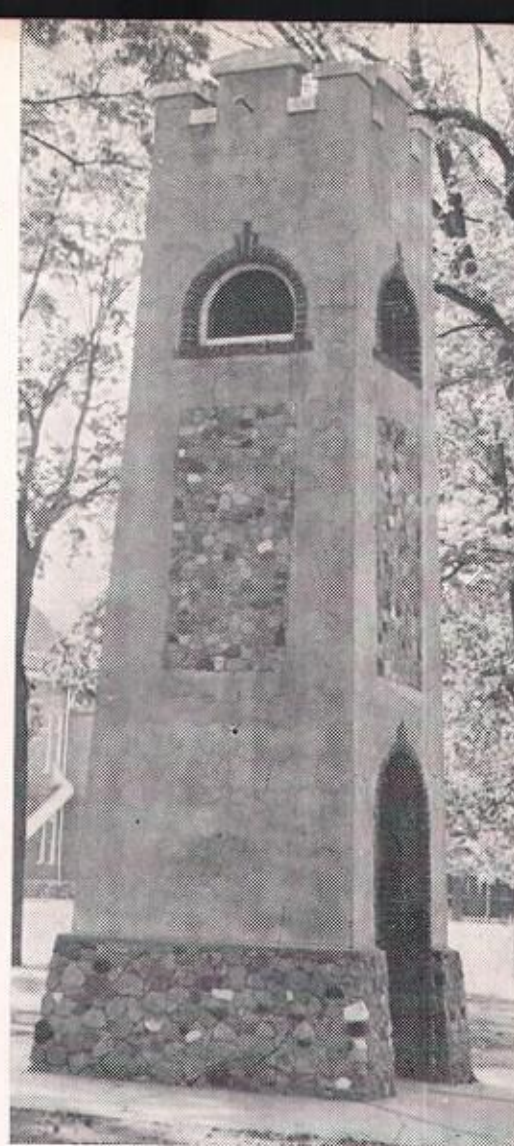

JOHN WURCH

Work! Work! Work!
Where do they find it all?

KAREN YAGGY★

Bright and happy,
always gay.
Code for success:
The Yaggy Way.

The Victory Bell and tower is a high school
symbol that will long remain in the memory of every graduate of Lincoln High. The bell has always been traditionally rung after every football victory.
This victory bell and tower will always remind us of "dear, old Lincoln High".

The Lincoln Statue is traditionally known by all as the symbol of Lincoln High. With a protecting eye "Old Abe" watches over all the many students that come and pass through these halls.

SENIOR SIGNATURES

CLASS OF 1957

Pat Cronin, Bill Dinsdale, Susie Carter

With two years of high school behind them, the class of 1957 has developed the same sense of loyalty and high regard toward Lincoln High as we, the class of 1956, proudly display.

Your Junior Class Play "Time Out for Ginger" was a great success. Last fall you sold concessions at the football games to earn money for the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom, with the theme of an "Ocean Liner."

Next year will be the last for you, the class of 1957. To you we leave the hopes, joys, dreams, and fun of being seniors in Lincoln High. But along with these come, also, the responsibilities of becoming the leaders of Lincoln High. We feel we are leaving these in capable hands and wish you success and happiness in your senior year.

CLASS OF 1958

Welcome to our high school. We feel sure you will like Lincoln High and will fit right into our way of life. We know we can depend on you and be proud of your next two years in Lincoln High School.

Your first year with us proved successful with your Homecoming float and other various sports achievements. Also demonstrated were your willingness to co-operate and your fine spirit. Greatly appreciated was your swell serving at the Junior-Senior Prcm and Banquet.

Best of luck and good wishes for your future in L.H.S.

CLASS OF 1959

Lynn Fletchall, Judy Crider, Dalene Hillyer

Next year you will enter Lincoln High as the class of 1959. As the class of 1956 moves out we know that the energy and enthusiasm you have shown this year will measure up to their high standards.

Remember your first party this year, "The Football," and the many following it, "Frosty Frolics," "Kongress Kapers," "Juke Box Jive," and of course the Freshmen Prom held May 18 which you all looked forward to.

Also congratulations to Lynn Fletchall, Dalene Hillyer and Judy Crider on the wonderful job they did as the class officers and head of congress this past year.

May you never neglect your duties nor let the fine customs of Lincoln High degenerate.

LINCOLN HIGH SCHOOL

In 1870 the demand rose for public high schools in Iowa towns. In Webster City, there was a public school up to the eighth grade, but only those who could afford it went on to Professor Baldwin's Academy, a private high school located on the lot east of the old Church of Christ.

Webster City needed a new school building due to the rapid growth in population. Professor Baldwin had become discouraged over the financial prospects of the academy, so in the late '70's, the School Board took over, using its two stories for the high school, thus giving more room for the grades in the old building.

In the spring of 1881, the first commencement, with four graduates receiving diplomas, was held at the old Congregational Church; it drew a full house and signified the beginning of a new chapter in Webster City history.

The next year the old grade school was torn down to build a new one in the same location, so the grades were moved to the academy building and the high school classes moved to the old Union Hall. By the school year 1882-1883, the new school building was finished and boasted a new superintendent and faculty.

Construction of a new high school to replace the overcrowded one started in June, 1912; on April 11th, 1913, townspeople flocked in to look over the arrangement and equipment of the new school.

The foremost idea of the Board in accepting the designs for the school was that of safety and utility combined. The walls, floors, and stairways were constructed of absolutely fireproof tile, and the class rooms, laboratories, and auditorium were conveniently arranged.

The new high school was named Lincoln High School in honor of the statue of Lincoln which was dedicated to it at that time.

MARCHING BAND

Concert, marching, and pep bands are three of the vital spokes that keeps the wheel of Lincoln High rolling. Without their cooperation and efforts our pep rallies, games, benefits, and dances would lack the "old school spirit."

Bob Howar, David Mertz, Earl Romig

MARCHING BAND

During the football season, the marching band strutting spiritedly in their uniforms which they had purchased and bought themselves, with Jackie Roth as head majorette, headed such happenings as the kick-off football barbecue, Homecoming Bonfire and parade, and performed at the half of every football game.

Betty Bishey, Peggy Fleer, Bonnie Blue, Doris Day, Marlena Sparks, Jackie Roth

MARCHING BAND

Through the efforts of the director, Mr. Muro, the concert band again this year gave concerts which were well-attended by the public. The events that this band played for were the Kiwanis Show, Town and Country Mixer, exchange with Eagle Grove, and at the graduation exercises.

CONCERT ORCHESTRA

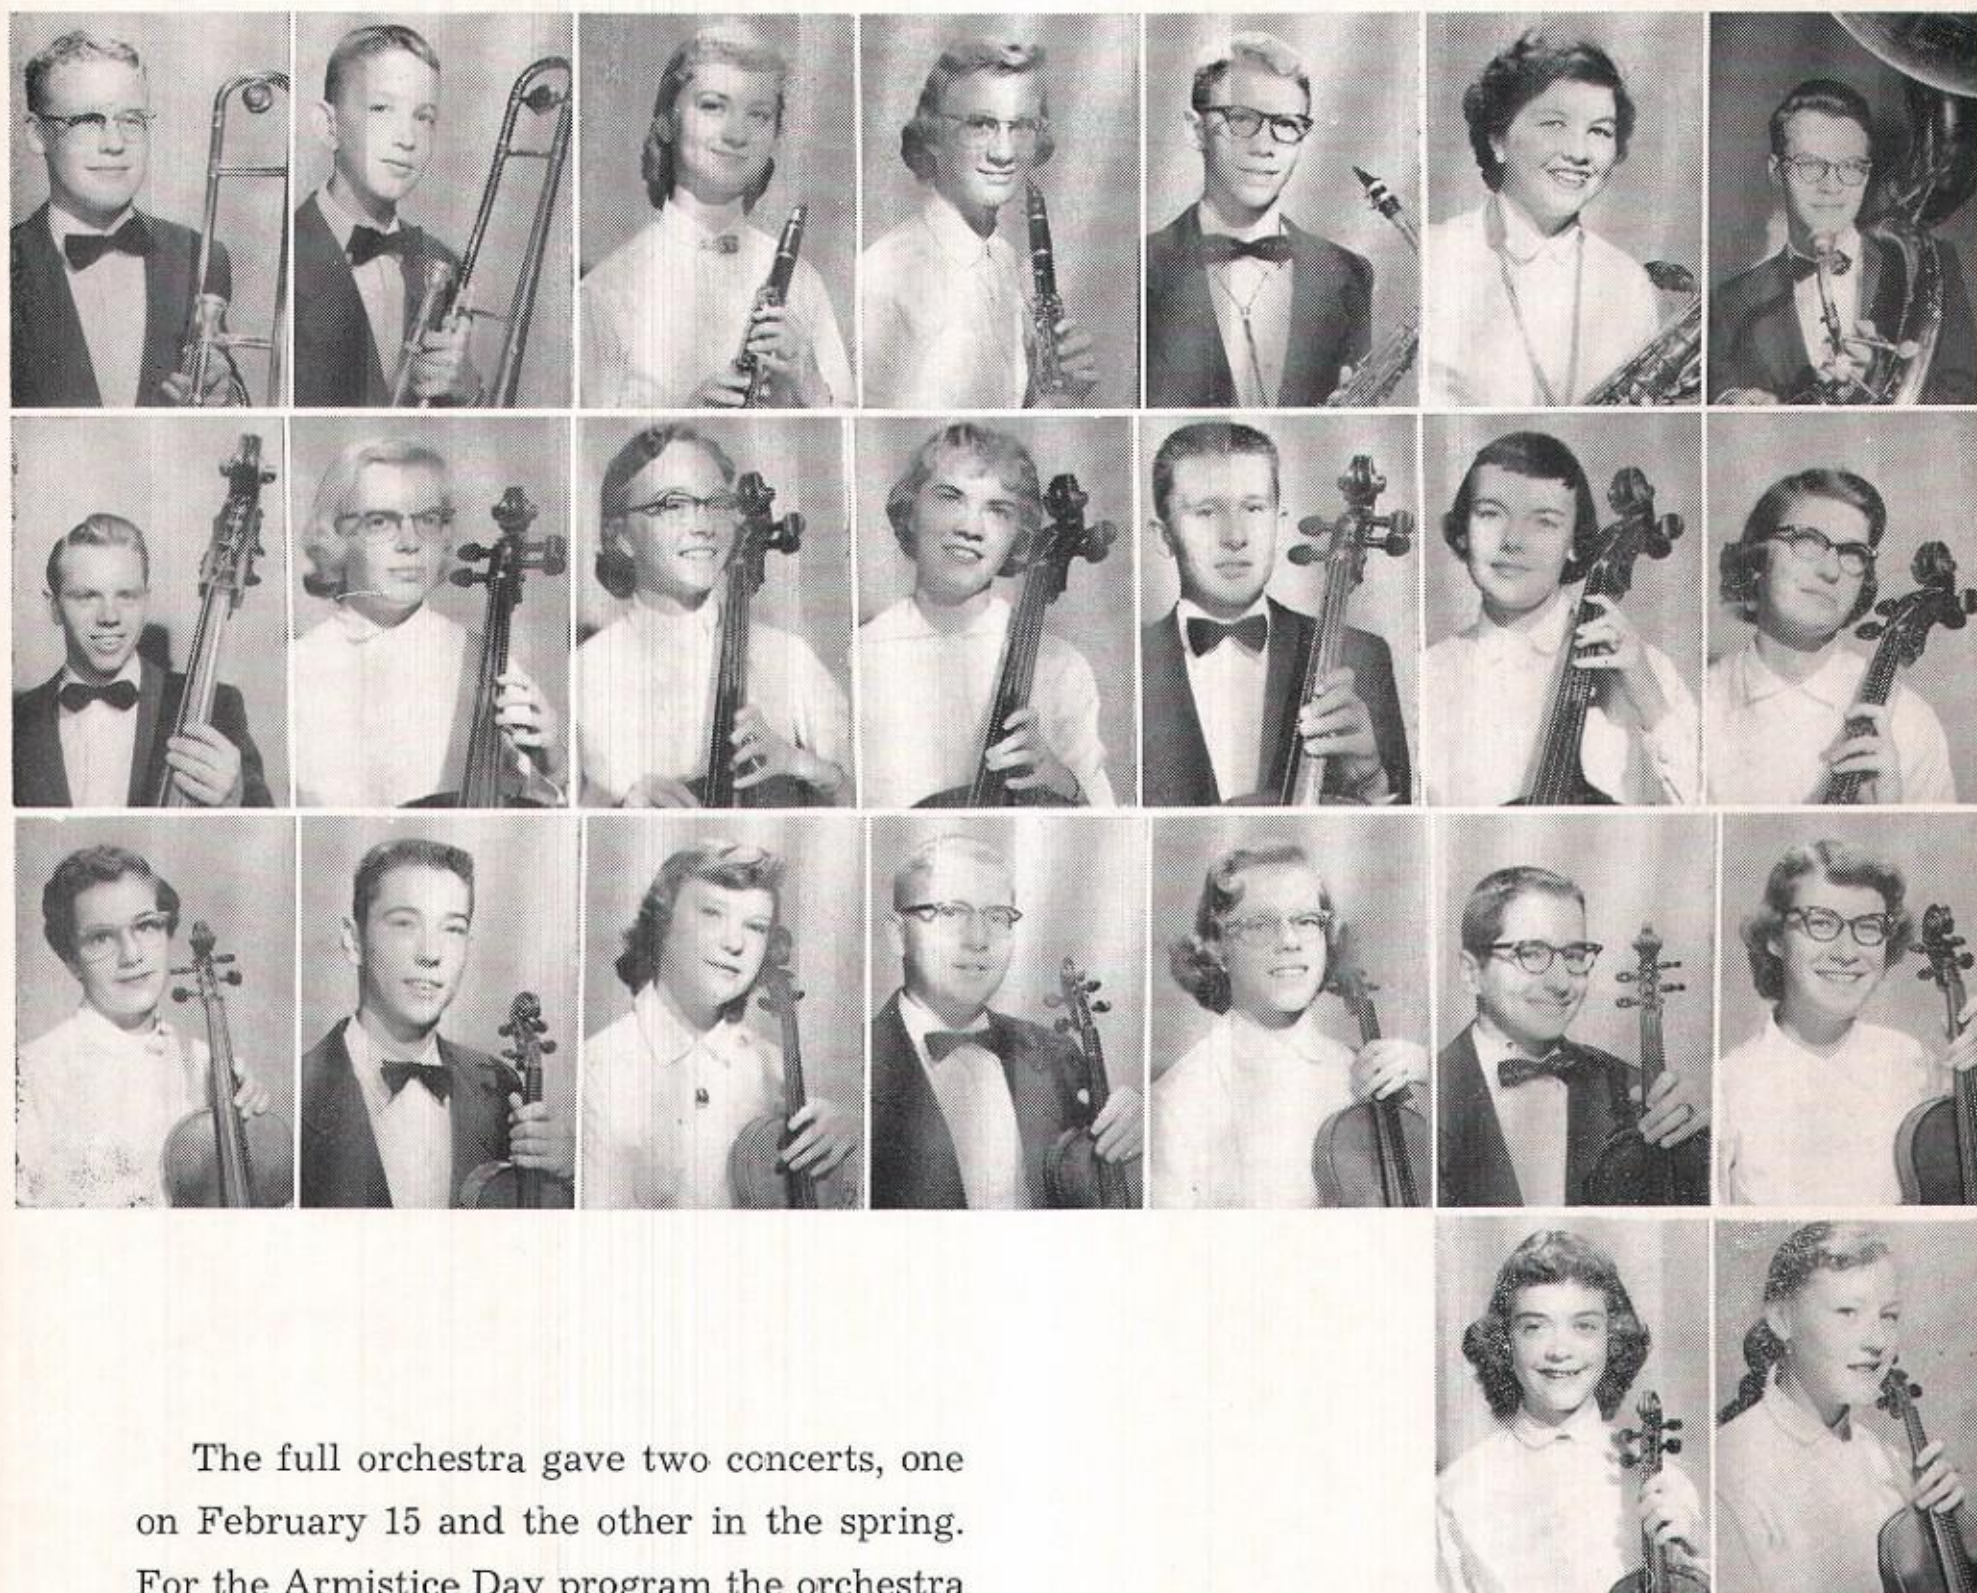

The orchestra, under the capable instruction of Mrs. Pat McCauley, has stirred up a great deal of attention over the '55-'56 year.

The string orchestra really set the audiences bouncing, including the woodwinds, brasses, and percussions, with their favorite tune, the peppy, "Plink, Plank, Plunk." Their playing at the beginnings of and during the intermissions of the various class plays really added to the spirit of the evenings.

CONCERT ORCHESTRA

The full orchestra gave two concerts, one on February 15 and the other in the spring. For the Armistice Day program the orchestra and chorus collaborated in a very effective presentation of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Every member will assure you that he enjoyed the trip to Cedar Falls in March when the orchestra gave an exchange concert for T.C.H.S., certainly an appreciative audience.

VOCAL

Girls' Glee Club

Representing Lincoln High in music contests this year were Claude Crumpton with a baritone solo; Beth Enerson piano solo; Bill Yungclas, Jack Barr, Duane Town, and Richard Chalfant in the Boys' Quartette which has just been formed; and the mixed double quartette from the a cappella choir including Sally Ladd, Mary Myer, Ann McMurray, Sally Bickford, Dale Hansen, Ray Johnson, Richard Chalfant, and Rod Brick.

A popular singing group the last two years, the Blu-Tones won third place in the Kiwanis Talent Show. They have provided entertainment for the Sophomore party and many other events. The music they sing is usually jazz with a blues arrangement.

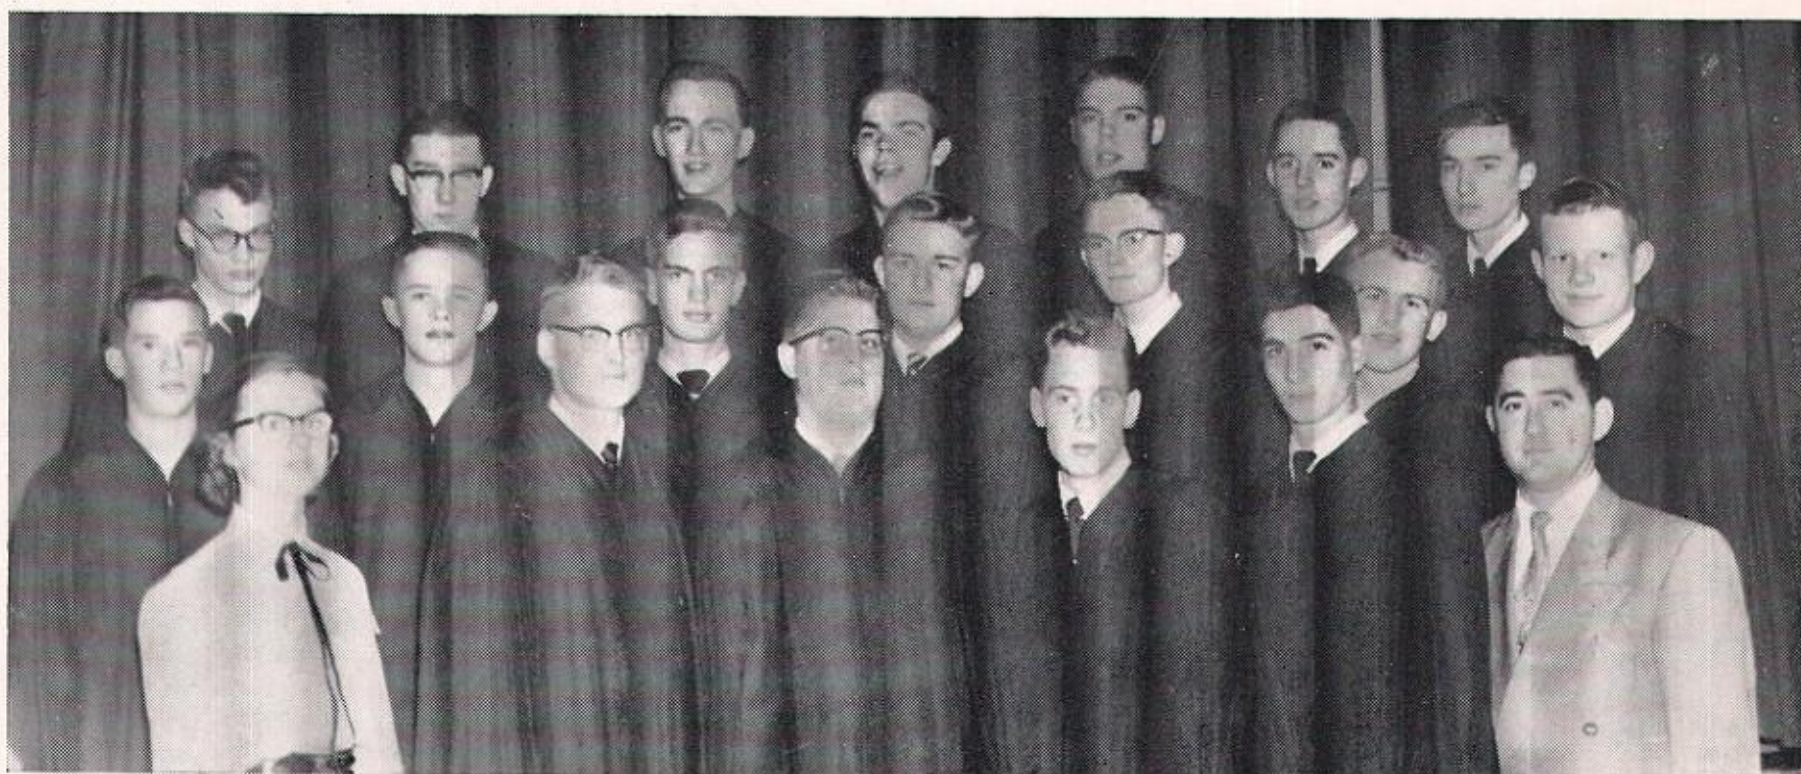

The Merry Maidens were first organized when they were in eighth grade and won the Kiwanis Talent Show. Now again, as sophomores and a slight change in membership, the group won the Talent Show. The three girls—Ann McMurray, Sally Ladd, and Judy Henderson—sing a close three part harmony in popular and well-known songs. They do all of practicing on their own outside of school.

All of these groups but the Merry Maidens are under the capable direction of Mr. Lester Bundy. Accompanists for the groups are: Nancy Oldham, Peggy Fleer, Beth Enerson, and Bette Brim.

Mixed Chorus

VOCAL

Boys' Glee Club

Highlight of the year for the mixed chorus, boys' and girls' glee clubs and sophomore glee club was the annual Christmas Concert. The mixed chorus also attended the Conference Music Festival held in Clarion and sang in the massed chorus. Along with these events a new feature was added this year—monthly assembly programs built around the various vocal and instrumental groups.

Sophomore Girls' Glee Club

VOCAL

Girls' Trio

Karen Holm, Joayne Withers, and Jeri Tait comprise the trio which sang at the Christmas Concert.

Sharon Thompson Chance, Peggy Fleer, Larry Hemmen, and Rod Brick formed the quartette that was chosen to sing in the 1000 voice All-State Chorus over Thanksgiving vacation in Des Moines.

Eighth, ninth, and tenth graders compose the 20 voice a cappella choir which has made many appearances this year, including the Rotary Leadership Banquet, Town and Country Mixer, and Junior High Parent's Night. This spring they went on tour.

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA

And the F.B.L.Aers wound up with a good '55 - '56 year too. Looking back on the activities, we remember that they were varied; some were business, some pleasure, most of them a combination of both.

The most anticipated event and the busy time of the year for F.B.L.Aers was the State Convention held this year on April 6 and 7 at Teacher's College in Cedar Falls. The respective committees worked up a clever little display on the effect of F.B.L.A. on industry, the community, the State and the world and collected pictures and articles for an attractive scrapbook. Nine students and one of the sponsors, Mr. Traugott, represented Webster City and came home with a first place speller, Bob Patrou, and three of the other contestants rated as seconds.

Probably the activity most remembered by all members was the Christmas party. Chuck Harreld and Jerry Sandvig were the chief chefs and the supper really tasted good; everyone went back for seconds and thirds. After eating and entertainment, everyone danced.

FUTURE NURSES OF AMERICA

The Webster City Future Nurses Club is an extra curricular activity sponsored by the Hamilton County Medical Auxiliary with Miss Loretta Ryan, school nurse, as advisor. The program was extended last year to become county wide, thus creating more interest and greater attendance.

Regular meetings were conducted the fourth Monday of every month at Elm Park School. Special activities such as a roller skating party provided additional high-lights throughout the year. Assistance at the Crippled Children's Clinic and a mid-winter candy sale in Lincoln High were also added to this year's program to bring added interest.

Captain Mary Hayes, a WAC nurse stationed in Kansas City, spoke to the organization at the beginning of the school year and created new interest in the rewarding profession by telling some of her experiences. Other speakers through the year included Miss Leta Seamans, supervisor of the local hospital who introduced a new observation program at the hospital, and a student nurse from a Fort Dodge hospital.

The State Medical Convention at Des Moines in April concluded the special meetings and was an enlightening experience for the local delegates.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

This year, for the first, a club for the Future Teachers was organized. The club was named the Booker T. Washington Club. The officers of the club are: President—Claude Crumpton, Vice-President—Margaret Alexander, Secretary—Doris Day, Treasurer—Jo Ann Nichols, Reporter—Phyllis Bowman, Librarian—Sally Parkhurst. There is also an executive committee of which three are elected out of the junior and senior classes. They are assistants to the officers.

The club wants to affiliate with the national and state organization. The main objective of the club is to enable the student to evaluate the teaching profession.

They attended the prospective teachers day under the sponsorship of our junior college.

The club hopes to attend the spring conference.

ROW 2: Mr. Fred Aspedon, Nancy Oldham, Mike Gleason, Darlene Johnson, Jerry Sandvig, Bill Yungclas, Butch Wilson, Mike Nepereny, Larry Hemmen, Mr. Crissey

As the conductor is important to a musical group so is the Student Council vital as a coordinating factor of our school's activities. Through this group of five elected representatives from each class, Lincoln High students have an opportunity to suggest improvements and speak up for their rights.

Homecoming was the first big project undertaken by the organization which introduced several changes from the traditional procedure.

Our Student Council was well represented at both the North Central Conference meeting held in Clear Lake and the State Convention held in Ames where Bill Yungclas was elected to the State Cabinet.

For a winter project the Council sold bookcovers in the school colors to the students.

Jerry Sandvig, District president, presided at the District meeting in Mason City where Larry Hemmen was elected as a Cabinet member.

Serving as local officers during '55-'56 were Harriet Mason, president; Ron Blue, vice-president; and Phyllis Bowman, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Crissey and Mr. Aspedon were advisors for the group.

Parliamentary Procedure Team: Larry Lee, Bob Short, Ron Odland, Jerry Gorman, Chuck Pierce, Dick Anderson

This year the Agriculture department has been especially active in many ways.

Lynn Fletchall won a gold rating for creed speaking at the district meet, the parliamentary procedure team won a silver rating at the sub-district meet and Curt Lemon was given the DeKalb award this year.

As usual the F.F.A. groups operated their chapter farm plus their three demonstration plots, of oats, soybeans, and forage.

Parties were on the list of the year's highlights that were enjoyed by many other than the F.F.A. boys. The Halloween party was superb, not to mention the roller skating parties, swimming party, wiener roasts and many others. Boxing, wrestling and basketball were great sport among the boys. Next year they intend to add rifle shooting and horses.

SENIORS PRESENT "The Great Big Doorstep"

Margie Alexander, Claude Hall, Mary Ellen Nail, Connie Lord, Toni Patrou, Lois Richards, Bill Fugate, Karen Yaggy, Dean Halverson, Claude Crumpton, Peg Fler, Chris Frederickson

The final dramatic production of the class of 1956 was a three-act comedy concerning the financial problems of a French mountain family in obtaining a bigger house.

"The Great Big Doorstep" floats down the river to them, and the action involves the efforts of the Crotchet family to get a house to go with them.

Mrs. Crotchet (Karen Yaggy) tries to hold her scattering family together with the help—and hinder—of her lovable but irresponsible husband the Commodore (Dean Halverson). He is supposedly a ditch-digger, but because of his mistaken mental attitude toward his health, Mrs. Crotchet raises and sells lilies to provide for her family—Topal, 17, (Margie Alexander); Arthur, 16, (Claude Hall); Evvie, 15, (Connie Lord); the ten-year old twins, Elna and Fleece, (Mary Ellen Nail and Toni Patrou); and the baby, T.J.

Peggy Fler plays the landlady, Mrs. Dupre, who is the owner of their present home, a dilapidated little shack that "heaven only knows why it ain't fell in on the pore chirren's heads!"

Mr. Tobin (Chris Frederickson), a shy Texan who is interested in Topal, offers to lend the family the $60 needed to purchase the house they want, but he is attacked and robbed by Topal's former fiancé, a "no-good barber", Tayo Delacroix (Claude Crumpton.)

Uncle Dewey Crotchet, the benevolent river-boat captain who loves his brother's family like his own, gives them a check for $100, but it bounces, and the Crotchets are again desolate.

Finally, a florist from New Orleans, (Lois Richards) comes to the Crotchet home and offers Mrs. Crotchet $120 for her lilies; so Mrs. Crotchet keeps her family together by her own hard work, and at last they get the house to go on their "stupendable doorsteps."

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY, "Time Out For Ginger"

CAST

Ginger	Sue Weable
Mr. Carol	Larry Hemmen
Joan Carol ..	Mickie Van Doren
Jeannie Carol ..	Gay Chastain
Mrs. Carol	Barbara Baber
Lizzie	Jeri Tait
Tom Green	Bill Yungclas
Eddie Davis	Jerry Sandvig
Ed Hoffman	Phil Nelson
Mr. Wilson	Don Niebuhr

This three-act comedy labeled the Junior Class Play as an outstanding event of the year. The play was based on the problems of a teenage girl and her doting family.

Ginger (Sue Weable) decides that her father (Larry Hemmen) isn't as loving to her as he is to his other two daughters, Joan (Mickie Van Doren) and Jeannie (Gay Chastain.) Mrs. Carol (Barbara Baber) and Lizzie (Jeri Tait) the maid, decided that Mr. Carol should begin to pay more attention to his youngest daughter, but Ginger has her own ideas about gaining the attention and winning love of her father. She decides that she wants to be a football player, much to the dismay of her young gentleman friend Tom Green (Bill Yungclas.)

Ginger's sisters, Jean and Joan's friend Eddie Davis (Jerry Sandvig) plead with her to give up the idea of being a football player, especially since Eddie is a big star himself, and with a girl playing it might tend to take some glory from him. Begging and pleading seems to be of no avail, and the plan to be a football player carries on.

The whole town is soon in an uproar and Mr. Carol's boss, Ed Hoffman, (Phil Nelson) threatens Mr. Carol his job if he doesn't prevent his daughter from playing football, but Dad decides that daughter should have a chance to prove herself.

At the big football game, Ginger proves that she isn't exactly the best of players, and the play ends well with Ginger deciding that it's best to be a girl aftera.

SPEECH CONTEST

The one-act contest play of 1956 under the direction of Miss Bonnie Wesselink journeyed to four contests during a three-month period—Preliminary, sub-district, district, and state. Although the competition grew tougher at each meet, the cast of "Why I Am a Bachelor" came through with straight I ratings until the final state contest in which they received a II.

The play, which won top honors in the state, was an excellent comedy revealing the heaving and stormy seas of matrimony; Jerry Sandvig, as the bachelor-lecturer, attempted to persuade his audience that marriage was the greatest of tragedies. This he did with the aid of a family which he carried with him on his lectures and used as the prize example of the ruin matrimony brings.

Barb Baber and Jim Lubbers portrayed the couple around whom the action centers; in the before-and-after scenes—that is, before marriage and after it—the couple showed that the courtship stage is all love, honey, and sweet promises. After the fatal step, it is one big disappointment and nightmare.

Henrietta's mother was played by Connie Lord, her aunt by Peg Flear, and her younger sister by Hila Coursey.

Also taking part in the speech contest this year were Ron Noe in original oratory, Karen Yaggy, in humorous reading, Barb Baber and Peg Flear in interpretive reading. Peg Flear received I's up to the sub-district meet and the rest took I's up to district.

USHERS AND CHECKERS

Hats off to Patsy Wedlund, LaDonna Crouch, Loraine Butrum and Bonnie Terlisner, who have served as ushers and checkers this past year. They have been of great value to Lincoln High. Checking coats, personal belongings and looking for an empty seat were only a few of the many tasks they performed while doing their part during the basketball season.

ART CLUB

In the art class this year there was fifteen junior and senior students enrolled. Many long hours of creating an original design has been spent in this room with the careful guidance of Miss LeCocq. Every minute has been worth all the time and effort as several of the students received awards at state contests .

When the weather was nice the class went outside to do sketches and water paintings of buildings and scenery. Ceramics, paper mache, oil painting, silk screening designs, and making copper jewelry were among the main units worked upon this year. Many other subjects in the course of art were worked upon and studied by the class members.

CHRISTMAS "SNO-BALL"

The falling snow took us up another step on our wonderful ladder of memories, The Christmas "Sno-Ball."

Held on December 28, the formal was sponsored by the Torch Staff, Pep Club, and F.B.L.A. and took place in Washington Central Gymnasium. The gym was decorated very effectively in a winter atmosphere, punch and cookies were served, and music was provided by Al Welch's Band.

This year a "Sno-Ball" Queen and two attendants were elected from the student body of Lincoln High School to reign over the Christmas "Sno-Ball." Miss Jackie Roth, a senior, reigned as Queen of the 1955 "Sno-Ball," and her attendants were Sharon Thompson Chance, junior, and Donna Schrader, sophomore.

The ladder seemed to be getting shorter as we took more steps towards the top. Yes, it may be said that our ladder was well stocked with activities, and though many of these are but memories to us now, they were all events that will never be forgotten, and among them was the Christmas "Sno-Ball."

SCHOOLS JOURNAL STAFF

ROW 1: Phyllis Bowman, Jackie Roth, Harriet Mason, Billie Dunn, Connie Lord

ROW 2: Shirley Bishey, Karen Yaggy, Karen Nelson, Mary Ellen Nail, Barbara Lazarus, Marlena Sparks, Barbara Silverstein

ROW 3: Phyllis Ewing, Ron Noe, Karen Havinga, Linda Lear, Mr. Kopel, Lois Richards, Beth Stearns

One of the most active groups at Lincoln this year was the journalism department. With 15 students, they put out the Schools Journal every week, published the Torch, and put out the final big edition of the Schools Journal.

Students performed every phase of work independently, writing, editing, copy and proof-reading, making layouts, collecting ads, taking pictures; they even financed part of their work by sponsoring the Christmas Formal and the Sadie Hawkins Dance.

Co-editorship of the Schools Journal was rotated so that every member of the class had a chance to work at every phase of publication. Jackie Roth and Linda Lear headed the Torch Staff, while Phyllis Bowman and Karen Yaggy edited the final edition.

This year's journalists were grateful to the help and understanding given them by their instructor, James Kopel, and felt that the course improved their writing, gave them self-confidence and poise through contact with other people, enabled them to think and evaluate events more accurately and critically, and made them more aware and appreciative of their environments.

TORCH STAFF

The 1955-1956 Torch Staff is the product of the combined efforts of the business staff, art committee, and the writing staff. The co-editors of the Torch are Linda Lear and Jackie Roth and the co-business managers are Lois Richards and Karen Havinga.

The duties of the art committee are to make the lay-out for the Torch and to mount pictures. This is one of the most important jobs and the members of the art committee have worked hard at this endeavor.

The writing committee consists of all the journalism members who are automatically on this staff. They write the sayings under the seniors' pictures and the write-ups under all the classes and activities.

The business committee supervises the selling of the Torch and getting ads from the businesses downtown.

Not to be forgotten are our photographers Bob Martin, Jim Mertz, David Crosley, and Ron Noe. Without them the students could not remember all the good times in high school.

Our thanks also to Jerry Sandvig for the fine job he did of printing special sections.

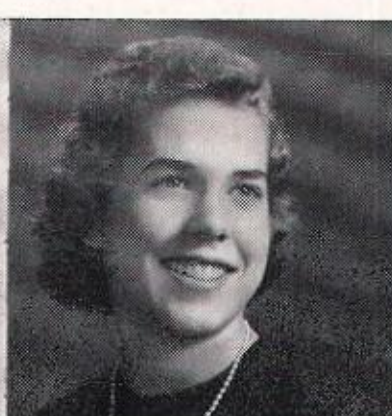

All-in-all, we, the Torch Staff, and our co-sponsors, Mr. Crissey, Mr. Kopel, and Miss Petersen, agree that this has been a very enjoyable year.

Home of the Lynx

Sports played a very important part in our school this year with all the boys playing their hearts out for the Lynx in an all out attempt to do their very best, which they did. Football coaches Mr. Matter, Mr. Sauerbry, and Mr. Rollinger pulled the Lynx 11 through for an undefeated season.

Football season was barely over when coaches Jones and Matter started to put the basketball boys through their paces. The 1955-56 season was the best season Lincoln High has ever had as far as school spirit and teamwork were concerned. The whole school backed the Lynx 5 at the games and when State Tournament time arrived, the whole town backed their team. It was the first time in school history that both football and basketball teams have gone undefeated in conference play.

Even before the last snow this year Mr. Rolilnger and Mr. Sauerbry started spring training for the track boys; many of whom were back from the previous year, and were ready to set more records. Five or six track meets were scheduled with several of these being tri-school track meets.

Mr. Matter's high school baseball team is going to enter in the summer competition this year. The students of Lincoln High School wish you the best of luck, fellows.

HOMECOMING ROYALTY

The autumn leaves brought with them one of the most important events of the year; Homecoming. Homecoming is an event not soon forgotten in the minds of any graduating class. The smell of burning leaves, laughing voices as the floats begin to take place, the anticipation of the big dance, the beautiful reigning queen and her charming attendants, planning for the most important football game of the year, and preparing for the parade activities.

Activities for 1956 Homecoming swung into the groove about two weeks before the actual day of homecoming. All the grades and school clubs began working on their float, each hoping that theirs would be a prize winner. Of course the football team had been working all year, but as this time began to roll around the team began to work all the harder preparing to defeat the foe.

School days found the students getting anxious for the big event, and the common talk around school was "Who will be queen?" Votes were cast, cheerleaders were preparing, team practiced faithfully, the band worked on their half-time show, and the big day finally was here.

The morning seemed to drag on endlessly; afternoon and the assembly finally rolled around. The students were all tense and it seemed that Dave would never let us know who our Homecoming Queen was. When the name Rosalie Grempele was announced a shout of glee went up from the crowd and our new queen began to reign over the activities.

ROYALTY ON PARADE

Eagle Grove just didn't seem to stand a chance after our rousing pep meeting and the big parade. The spirit of the snake dance was still with us all. Eagle Grove was doomed! Game time was soon and the whole town was backing our team. The game was a thrilling one that was exceptionally well played by our team. Half-time program consisted of crowning and paying tribute to the queen and her attendants Karen Nelson, Toni Patrou, Shirley Bishey, and Beverly Hanson. When Claude Crumpton sang "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi" many seniors were misty eyed as the realization came that this would be the last time.

We won our game too and our glorious victory spirit was carried over to our annual dance held that night after the game.

The dance was a highly successful affair held in Washington Central Gymnasium with a dance band. Rosalie and her attendants were again honored guests and during the program they were again presented. After the program was over and the punch and cookies were served the dancing resumed until about 12:30.

But just as all good things must come to an end so did our Homecoming festivities for 1956. This was an event that will long be remembered by all participating in it—Homecoming—our senior year.

THE BASKETEERS

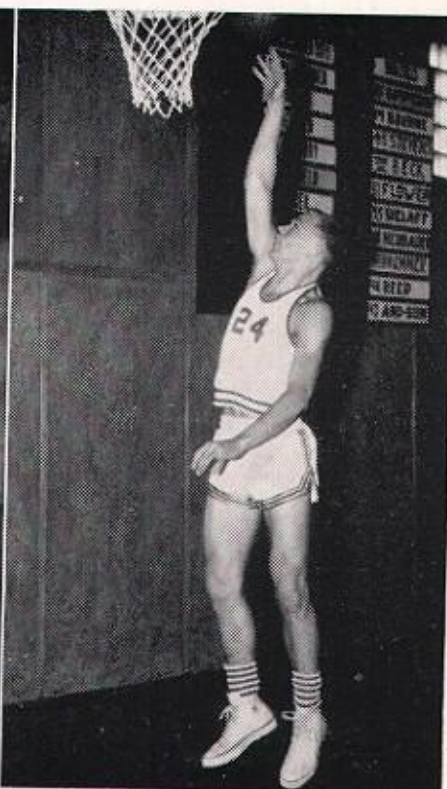

RON BLUE — Ron is surely one of the finest guards in the history of the Lynx. He is a rugged rebounder as well as a great leader of this year's team. If we could only have one player like him in the line-up every year.

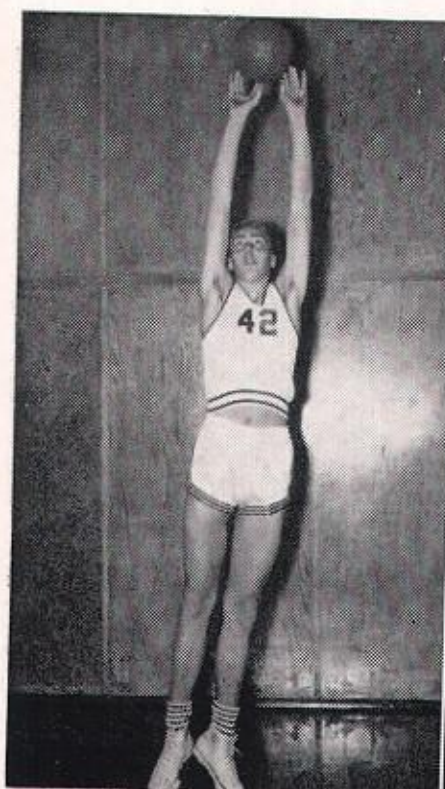

BOB SEAMANDS — The surprise of this year's team, Bob played sensational ball through the tournament grind. Bob was a wonderful example for young athletes to follow in his determination and desire to become a better player. He is another "little man" who made good.

DAVE MOORE — Dave came into his own this season and down the tournament trail, from the sectional through the State Consolation finals, was probably the outstanding Lynx player. He scored 486 points for the season — a near Webster City record.

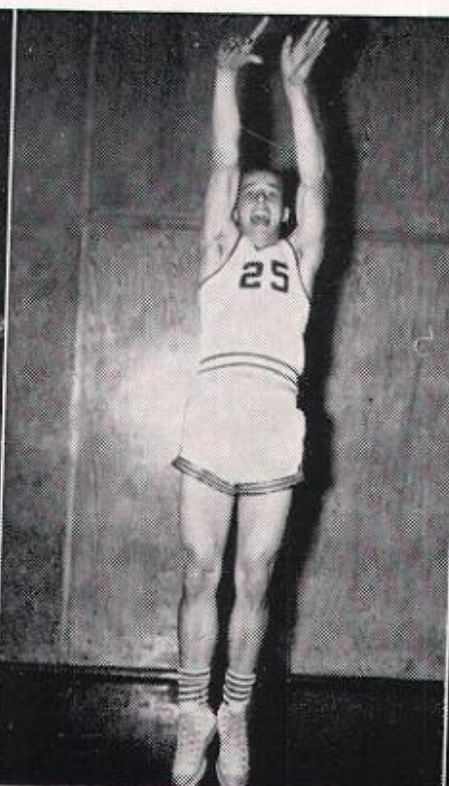

GARY KOLBECK — Gary was one of those "once in a life time" players who was gifted in every aspect of the game. Gary brought great recognition to Lincoln High and we know that his exploits on the cage maples will be remembered for years to come. He set a new scoring record in Webster City with 504 points for the season.

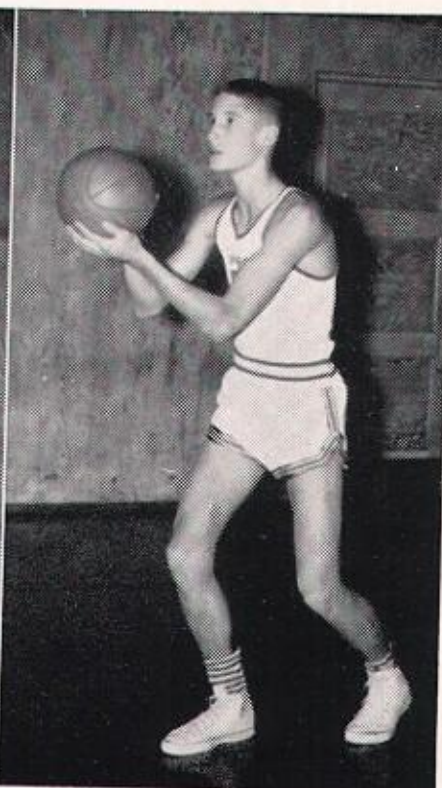

TERRY ROBERTS — Terry improved so much this season, and played such fine ball, especially in the Carroll game that sent the Lynx to the State — that we are all looking forward to his performances next year — and wondering just how fine a player he will become.

JERRY SANDVIG — Jerry always played fine ball when he entered the game. Because of his serious desire to improve we know that we can expect great things from him next year.

CHUCK HARRELD — Hampered by his shoulder injury, Chuck never-the-less gave his all, and certainly was a credit to this year's fine ball club.

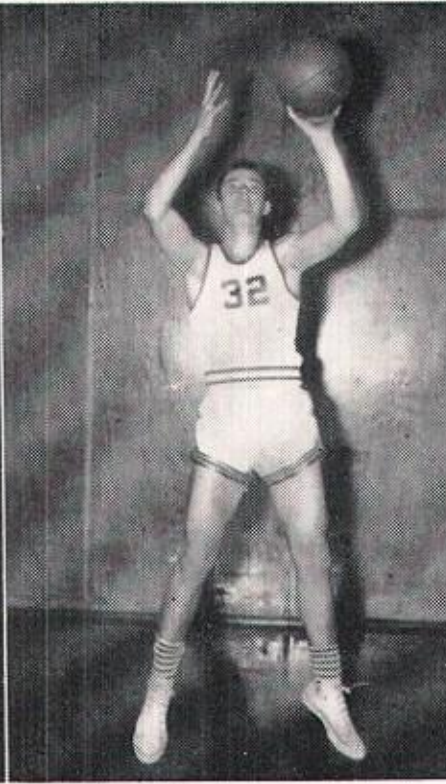

JOHN PTACEK — As a "Sop" in the line-up, John was a great reserve who could be called upon for a fine performance at any time. Basketball fans know that he has a tremendous future ahead of him in the cage world.

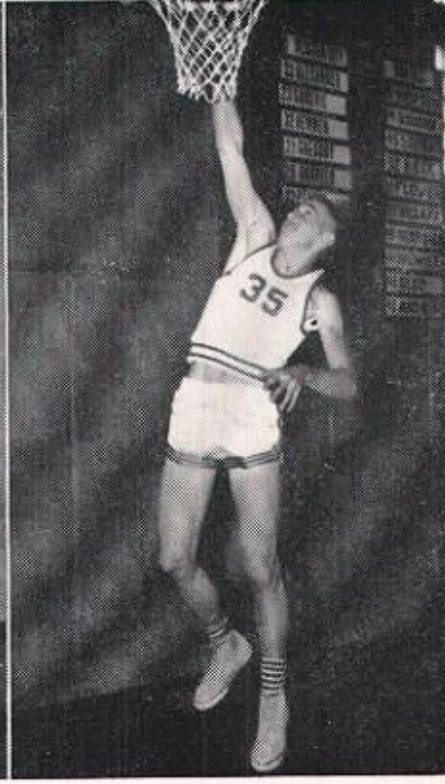

THE BASKETEERS

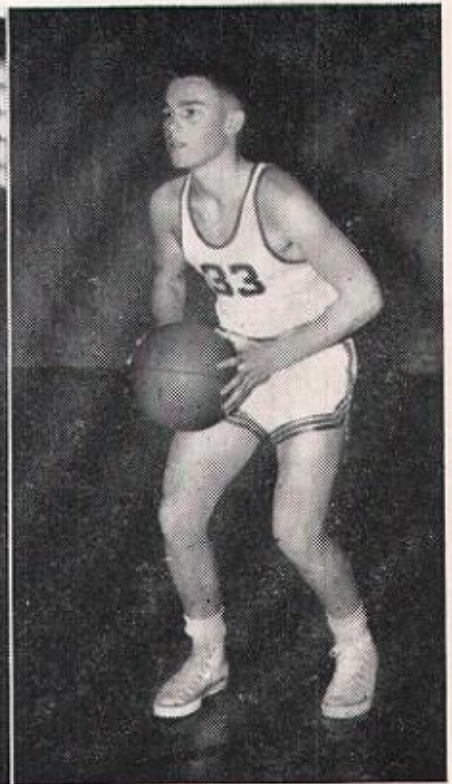

DON DYVAD — A senior who was forced to give up basketball to have a knee operation. I know that the team appreciated his support of the team throughout the year. We know that Don would have been a valuable member of our team this year.

LARRY HEMMEN — Left-handed shooter who is very determined to make next year's ball club.

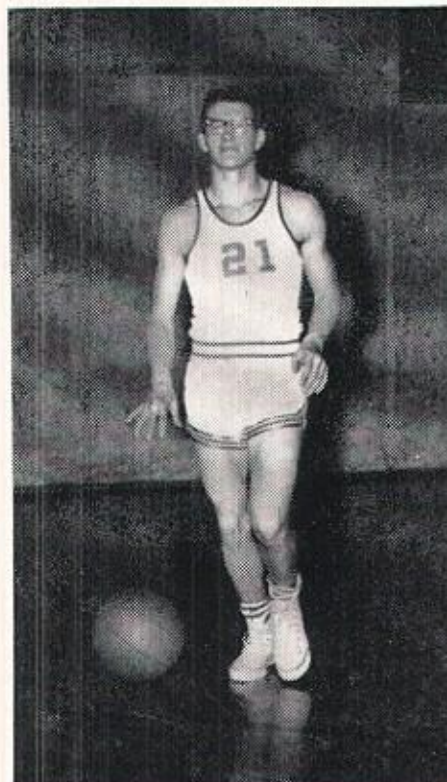

BUTCH WILSON — Out for first time this season, Butch has improved immensely. Could become a fine player next season.

MARVIN ALEXANDER — Because of his fine out-shooting we know that Alex will give us a lot of cage thrills the next two years.

G.A.A.

ROW 1: Sally Ladd, Donna Schrader, Linda Lubbers, Sondra Harreld, Rita Madsen, Dorothy Sharp
ROW 2: LaDel Madsen, Susie Carter, Miriam Nissen, Karen Withers, Jackie Roth, Barbara Silverstein, Judy Henderson

The Girls' Athletic Association, better known to its followers as G.A.A., has had an active year. The club was lead by its officers, Miriam Nissen, Karen Withers, and Donna Schrader and was under the direction of Miss Jean Davis.

The trampoline was the main center of attraction during the fall and as the year progressed, the interests turned to basketball, which they played most of the winter.

Two new activities undertaken this year were tennis and modern dancing which were met with enthusiasm. With the coming of spring the girls played softball, tennis, bowled and went swimming at the indoor pool in Fort Dodge.

Miriam Nissen, Karen Withers, Donna Schrader

To earn money to finance the girls' way to various G.A.A. convention and play-days, they sold pom poms, sponsored dances and had candy sales.

CHEERLEADERS

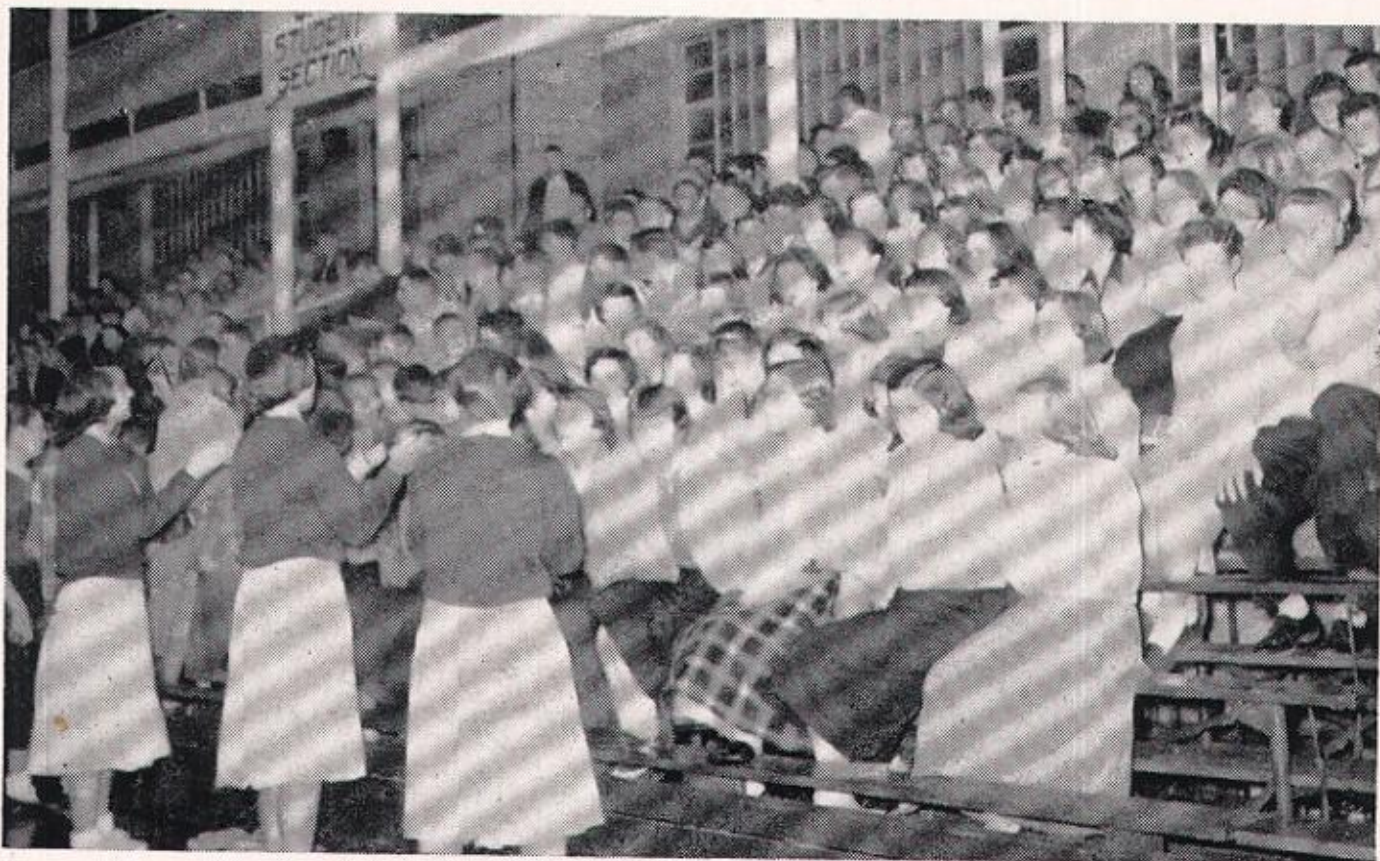

"L-Y-N-X fight, fight, fight, fight, L-Y-N-X fight, fight, fight, fight, Yeah LYNX fight." This is one of the expertly executed cheers that our cheerleaders of 1955 and 1956 performed at the football and basketball games and at the other various activities that they so willingly cooperated.

These girls, Beverly Hanson, Mary Ellen Nail, Roselie Grempe, Connie Lord, Toni Patrou, and Karen Nelson were chosen by the student body May 23, 1955 before the year ended. During the summer, they practiced and learned new cheers besides getting their outfits ready.

Each girl had a purple sweater with a white W on the front, white skirts and gold corduroy slacks to wear with the sweaters. To you cheerleaders, we the student body, give thanks for the wonderful job that you did in representing us and leading us in the yells and cheers that helped everyone to victory.

PEP CLUB

This year's Pep Club has been an outstanding organization made up of fine personnel and an asset to our winning teams and the community. Because of their unfailing spirit they will be long remembered as a part of this year's glorious sports season.

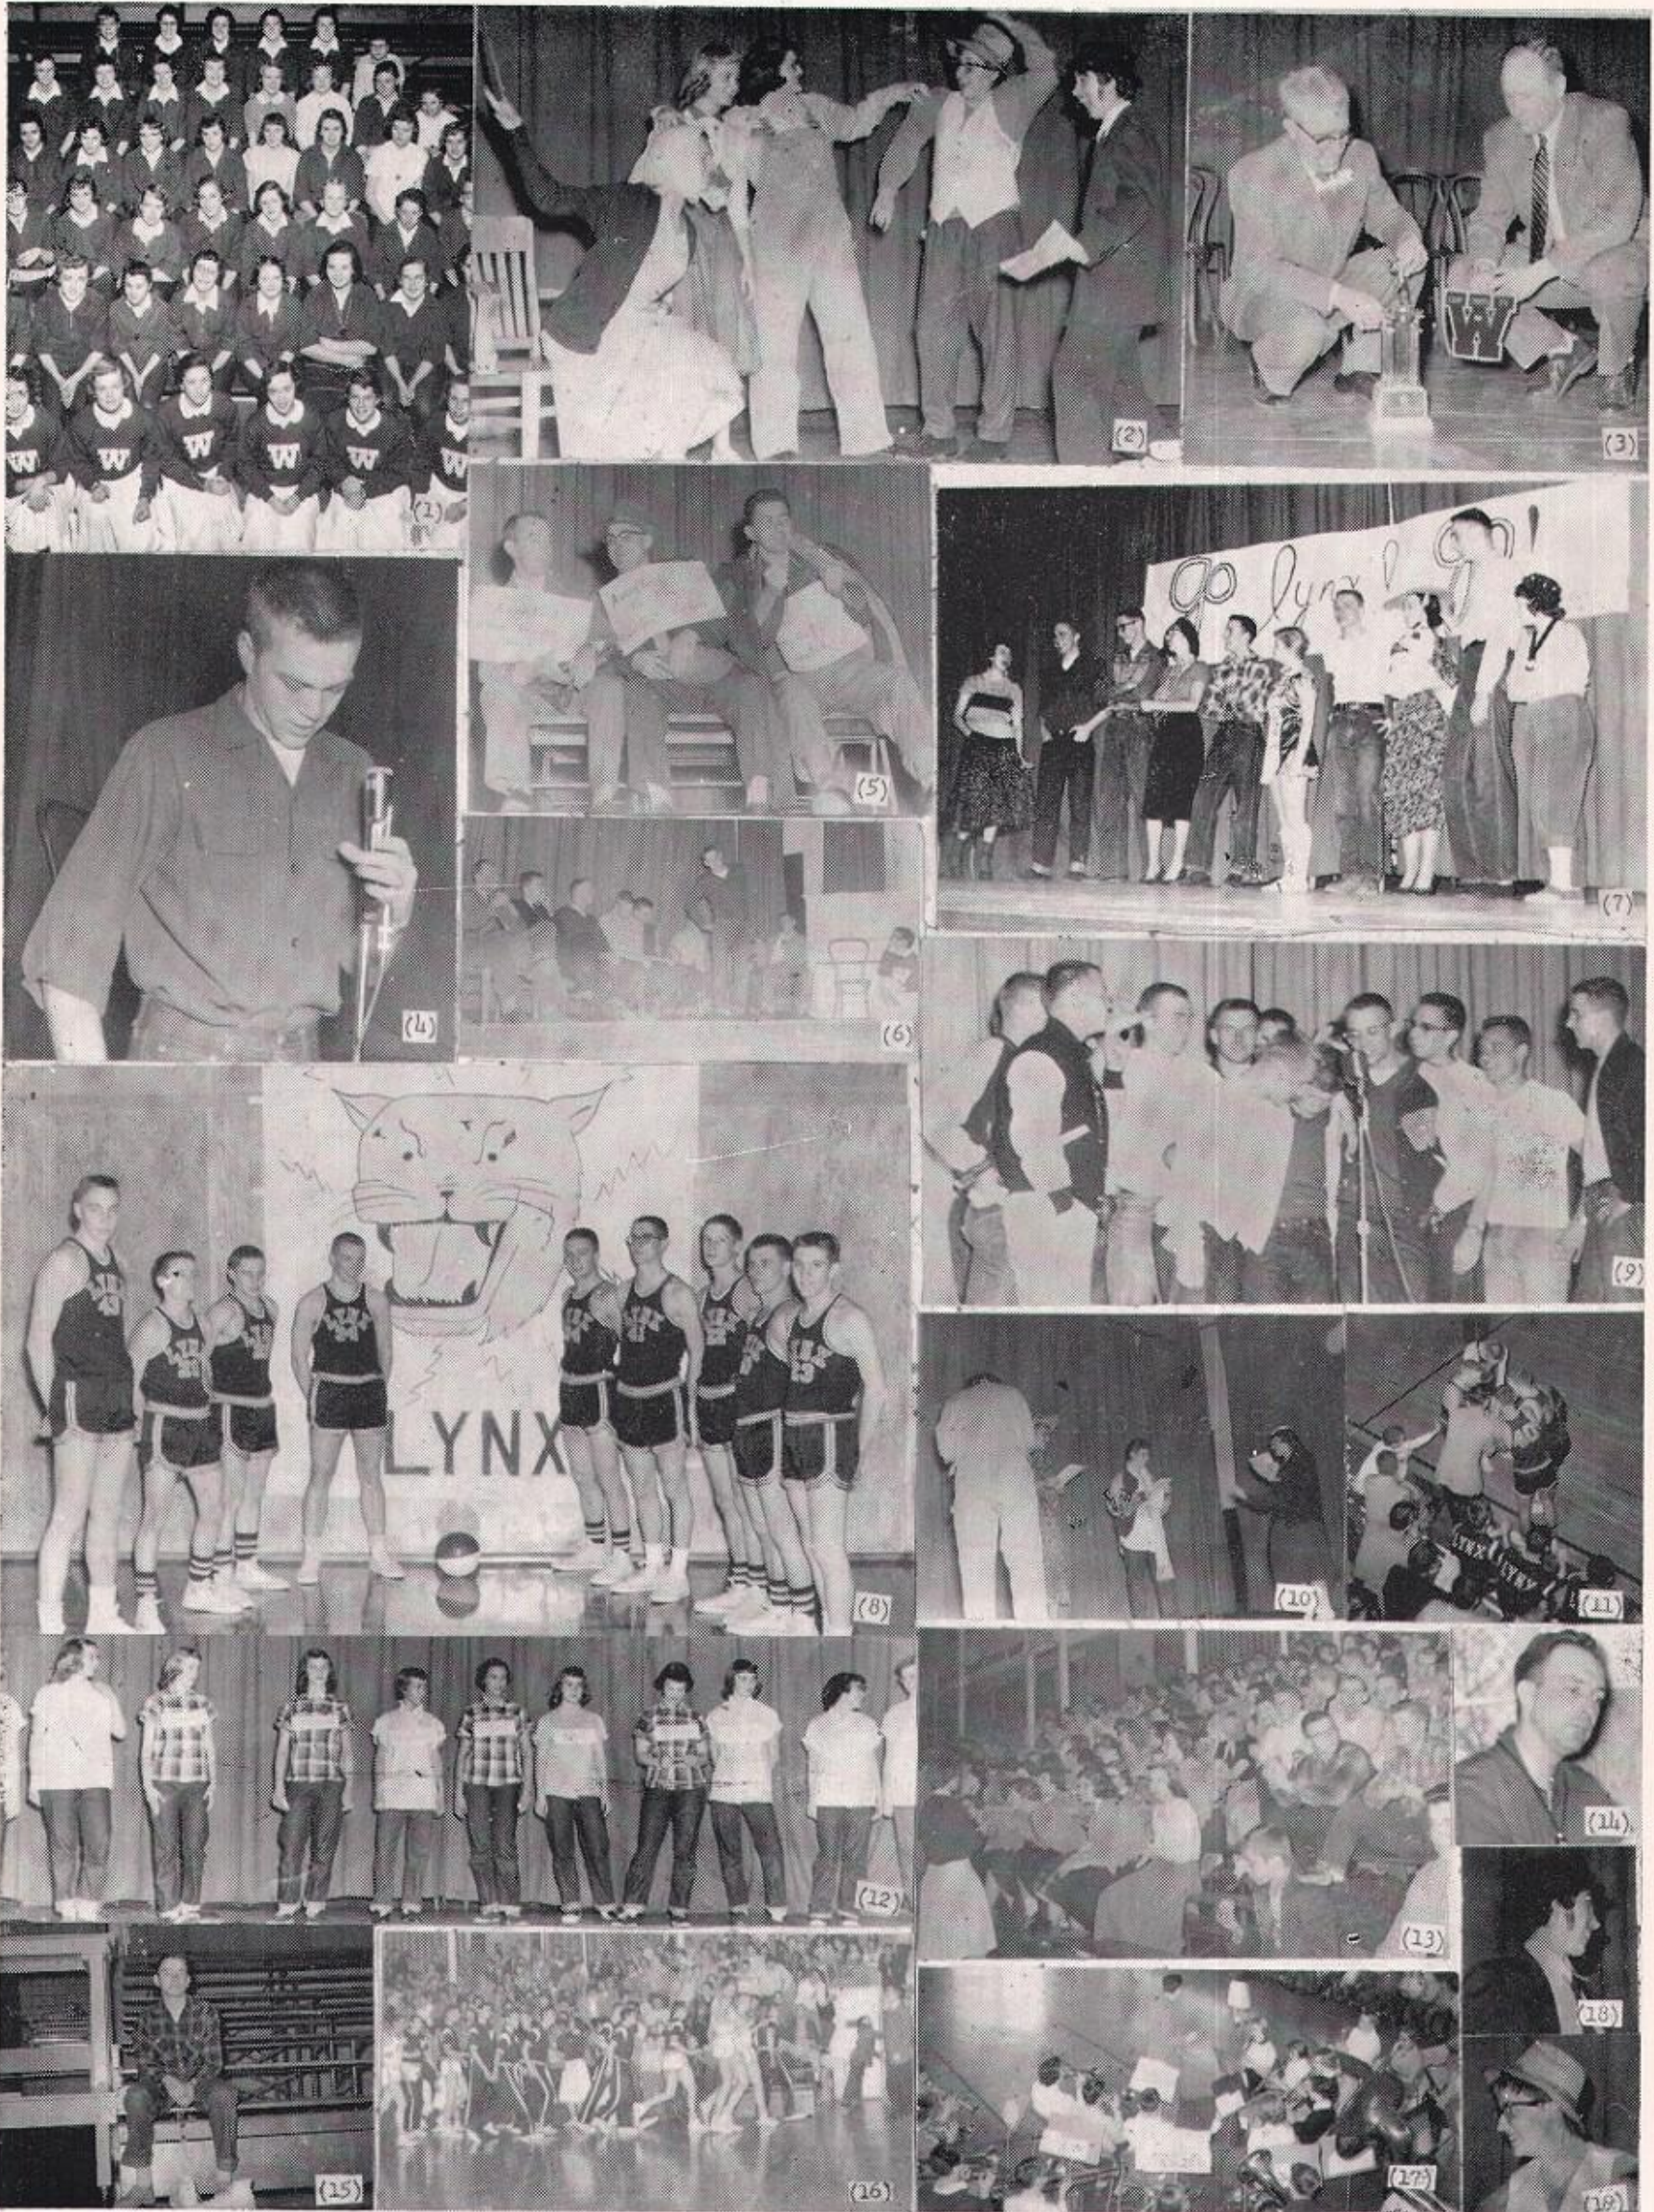

The club members have been active participants by serving at the kick-off barbecue and annual basketball banquet, presenting skits at many pep assemblies, and being one of the sponsors of the Christmas formal.

Sixty-three gold corduroy jackets were issued to deserving members to be worn at pep assemblies and all games. A special section was reserved for the club at home games and at the Sectional, District, and State tournament games.

Many memories will always be vivid to Pep Club members who braved all sorts of weather to lead our teams to wonderful records.

WE JUST COULDN'T SAY GOOD-BYE

THIS ONE FOR MOTHER!

WEBSTER CITY JUNIOR COLLEGE

With the graduation of the 26th junior college class, the Webster City Junior College will again turn out people who are qualified to teach or who are able to go on to a college to attain a degree for four years.

But this school doesn't believe in all work and no play. They have always had something going on to do. Whether it was play-nites, their college play, concerts, road tours, or dinner and prom, the "bunch" at junior college always had fun just being together.

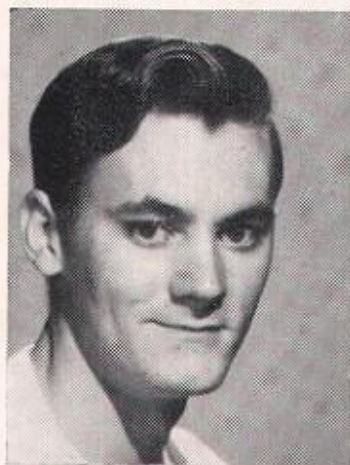

With the backing of the Indian Club and the loyal fans of town and school the W.C.J.C. Indians placed first in rough district play, and they went on to win third in the State Tournament held at Jefferson Gym.

And then, finally, the event that everyone had been waiting for arrived at last! It was the time when all of the Indians dressed up in their best feathers and blankets to go to supper and dancing. Yes, it was the banquet and prom.

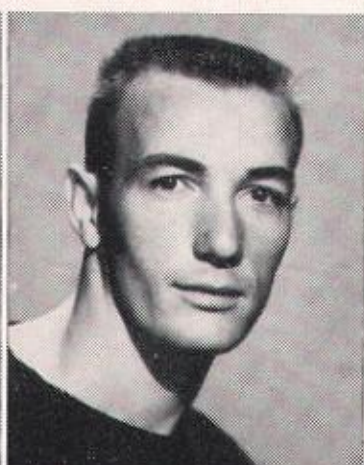

But the event where they really let out a war-whoop is at their annual picnic. That was the time when the teachers became just "one of the kids", and everyone went just to have a good time.

So farewell to thirty sophomores that will graduate this year. Good-bye and remember the knowledge that you attained at Webster City Junior College. But hello to all of the coming freshman class, may you carry on the tradition that has been built before you in the faith and loyalty that the graduates had.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Bill Black, Jerry Lovelace, Dick Boyd, David Hasbrouck, Dick Arney, Linda Van Doren (seated), Dean Langerak, Tom Arbogast, Mrs. Phyllis Rollinger, Bud Card

Under the able leadership of President Linda Van Doren the Junior College Student Council has completed many projects this year in addition to sponsoring many of the special events in the social life of the students.

The other officers are as follows: Vice-president—Jerry Lovelace; Secretary—Carolyn Card; Treasurer—Tom Arbogast and Dean Langerak is the advisor.

All ten members of the governing body are elected by all of the students at the beginning of the year.

The first project of the year was sponsoring the Homecoming Dance besides many other dances following football games. During the year they planned special assemblies. The publishing of the TOM TOM, J.C. yearbook, was under the direction of the Student Council. When the Junior College Basketball Tournaments are held here the S.C. is active in organizing and helping with it. In the spring they sponsor the Recognition Dinner, Formal Banquet, and picnic and also share responsibility and fun with the high school at their annual prom.

HONOR SOCIETY

SEATED: Arlene Simpson, Shirley Withers, Phyllis Rollinger, Virginia Erickson
STANDING: Hank Gerber, Linda Van Doren, Harold Fenton, Tom Arbogast. BACK—Duane Merrill, Bruce Stotts, Larry Brewer

The Junior College Honor Society was this year comprised of 11 members.

To be a member of the Honor Society the student must have 12 academic hours, and maintain a 3.25 average. Silver emblems are given to anyone maintaining this average for one semester and Gold emblems are awarded to those with the average for three semesters. Duane Merrill, Hank Gerber, and Linda Van Doren will receive the Gold emblems this year.

There will be two J.C. Honor Society students representing them at the Kiwanis Honor Banquet along with the high school and grades. Besides this, they also attended the Recognition Dinner held April 23.

TOM TOM STAFF

The yearbook of the Webster City Junior College, the Tom Tom, is under the editorship of Tom Arbogast. Tom is aided by Paul Plager, associate editor; Linda Langerak, social editor; Donna Ratcliff, column editor; Dean Fenton, faculty editor; Pat McKeag, sports editor, Linda Van Doren, feature editor; Julie Carpenter, extra-curricular activities editor; and Rodney Stafford, advertising manager.

Dean Langerak and Miss Hazel Pearl Walker advise the group, who do all of the work on the 30-page publication in their spare time.

The Tom Tom's aim is to supplement the Junior College section of the high school Torch in relating

ROW 1: Harold Fenton, Tom Arbogast, Rodney Stafford, Dick Arney
ROW 2: Linda Langerak, Donna Ratcliff, Pat McKeag, Linda Van Doren

the sports, activities, studies, and social life of the J.C.

Copies of the yearbook are sent to alumni and to all Hamilton County seniors in an effort to arouse interest and enrollment in Webster City's Junior College.

JUNIOR COLLEGE CHORUS

This year, as in the past, we pay tribute to the Webster City Junior College Chorus. This fine group, under the direction of Mrs. Patricia McCauley, has presented two concerts, the Christmas Cantata on December 21, and the Spring Musicales, along with the high school, on May 2. They also joined with the mass chorus to sing on Veterans' Day.

The chorus attended the State Junior College Musical Festival in Marshalltown March 21, where they sang with 15 other Iowa Junior Colleges.

Between concerts the group found time to make a day and a half tour of surrounding towns and communities.

We would especially like to thank them for their part in our Baccalaureate services.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

This year the Webster City Junior College Chapter of F.T.A. had 19 members. Miss Ferne Marsh, Director of Teacher Education, was the sponsor. An educational program was planned for each of the regular meetings which were held once a month. Teachers and professional people often spoke at the meetings.

The local chapter was affiliated with the Iowa State Educational Association and the national organization as well. Pat McKeag and Shirley Withers were chapter delegates to the State F.T.A. Convention held in Des Moines in February.

Two Northwest District Conventions were held this year; the fall regional meeting was in Storm

Lake in October and the spring meeting was held in Fort Dodge in April. The entire chapter attended both meetings.

The annual Christmas party was a 6:30 potluck dinner at the home of Virginia Erickson. A gift exchange, games and contests were enjoyed by all.

The chapter takes care of its expenses through candy sales and sponsoring check rooms during the J.C. basketball tournaments.

The officers for the year were: President, Phyllis Rollinger; Vice President, Pat McKeag; Secretary, Virginia Erickson; Treasurer, Shirley Withers; Historian, Arlene Simpson.

J.C. PRESENTS "OLD DOC"

"Old Doc," a three-act comedy-drama, was presented by the Webster City Junior College on November 1st, 1955

"Old Doc" (Tom Arbogast) is an old country doctor who works only for the welfare of his patients. He cares very little for money. His young and handsome son, Robert Hillary, (Ron Parrish) who has just finished schooling for the profession of Doctor, decides that he wants to become assistant to a rich city doctor and work only for the money angle. When Old Doc hears this, it nearly breaks his heart. The whole small town pities Doc, and they all try in their own separate way to comfort the old man. Upon hearing of the young doctor's plan, his fiancée, "Old Doc's" nurse, (Carolyn Card) breaks off their engagement. For awhile young doctor Bob tries spite to show that he can do as he pleases with his career. Finally he sees that he has been doing wrong and decides to take over his father's practice.

Old Doc dies a happy man knowing that his son will follow in his footsteps.

Basketball

The Junior College Indians had a successful season this year with a 15 win, 8 loss record. They won the district championship, and placed third in the State Tournament by defeating Ellsworth by a score of 78-64.

The Indians did a great job of playing basketball this year and we of Lincoln High and Webster City are proud of them and hope they are as successful in the years to come as they were this season.

We are losing all of our first string squad this year and all but three of our second team. Those remaining will be Don Burton, John Nelson, and Paul Siefkan.

Congratulations also to the Junior College baseball team for their wonderful spirit and willing team. They provided many enjoyable afternoons of baseball for their fans in Webster City.

J.C. CHEERLEADERS

"I-N-D-I-A-N-S! Yeah Indians, Fight!" These and other very familiar cries echoed loudly throughout Jefferson Gym during the Junior College basketball games. The two girls responsible for creating pep, spirit, and enthusiasm through the season and leading the backing of the team were Pat McKeag and Donna Ratcliff.

Their outfits consisted of black sweaters with big white W's on the front and back and white inverted pleated skirts.
